- (1) public offering of shares;
- (2) non-public offering of shares;
- (3) allotment of bonus shares to existing shareholders;
- (4) conversion of funds in the capital common reserve to share capital;
- (5) other methods permitted by laws and administrative regulations and approved by securities regulatory authorities.

If the Company is to increase its capital by an offering of new shares, it shall do so by the procedure provided for in relevant state laws after such increase has been approved in accordance with these Articles of Association.

Article 27. Except as otherwise provided by laws and administrative regulations, shares in the Company may be transferred freely with no lien attached.

CHAPTER 4 Reduction of Capital and Buyback of Shares

Article 28. In accordance with the provisions of the Articles of Association, the Company may reduce its registered capital.

Article 29. If the Company is to reduce its capital, it shall prepare a balance sheet and a list of its property.

The Company shall notify its creditors within 10 days from the date of adoption of the resolution to reduce its registered capital and publish a public announcement of the resolution in newspapers or on the National Enterprise Credit Information Publicity System within 30 days. Creditors shall, within 30 days of receiving written notice, or within 45 days of the date of the public announcement for those who have not received written notice, be entitled to require the Company to pay its debts in full or to provide a corresponding security for repayment.

The reduced registered capital of the Company may not be less than the statutory minimum.

Where the Company reduces its registered capital, the shares shall be reduced in proportion to the shares held by the shareholders, except as otherwise provided by laws and the Articles of Association.

Article 30.

The Company shall not repurchase its own shares other than under any of the following circumstances:

- (1) reduction of its registered capital;
- (2) merger with another company holding shares of the Company;
- (3) use of shares for employee shareholding scheme or as equity incentive;
- (4) a shareholder opposes a resolution on the merger or division of the Company adopted at a Shareholders' Meeting and requests that the Company purchase his or her shares;
- (5) use of shares for conversion of corporate bonds which are convertible into shares issued by the Company;
- (6) where it is necessary to safeguard the value of the Company and the rights and interests of its shareholders;
- (7) other circumstances required in laws or administrative regulations.

If the Company buys back its own outstanding shares, it shall do by the provisions set forth from Article 31 to Article 32 of these Articles of Association.

Article 31.

Acquisition of the Company's shares by the Company may be carried out through open and centralized transactions or by other means recognized by laws, regulations and securities regulatory authorities.

Buyback of shares of the Company under the circumstances set forth in items (3), (5) and (6) of the Article 30 shall be conducted through open centralized transaction.

Article 32. Buyback of shares of the Company under the circumstances set forth in items (1) and (2) of the Article 30 shall be resolved at the Shareholders' Meeting. Buyback of shares of the Company under the circumstances set forth in items (3), (5) and (6) of the Article 30 shall be made in accordance with the provisions of the Articles of Association or with the authorization of the Shareholders' Meeting, and shall be subject to approval by more than two-thirds of Directors present at the meeting of the board of directors.

The shares bought back by the Company under the circumstances set forth in item (1) of the Article 30 shall be cancelled within ten days after the date of buyback; under the circumstances set forth in items (2) and (4), the shares shall be transferred or cancelled within six months after the date of buyback; under the circumstances set forth in items (3), (5) and (6), the aggregated number of shares of the Company held by itself shall be not more than 10% of the total issued shares of the Company and shall be transferred or cancelled within three years after the date of buyback.

The amount of the Company's registered capital shall be reduced by the total par value of the shares canceled.

CHAPTER 5 Financial Assistance for the Purchase of Company Shares

Article 33. Neither the Company nor its subsidiaries (including the subsidiary enterprises of the Company) shall at any time provide any financial assistance in any form to purchasers or prospective purchasers of shares of the Company, except in the case of the Company's implementation of an employee stock ownership plan. Purchasers of shares of the Company as referred to above shall include persons that directly or indirectly assume obligations as a result of purchasing shares of the Company.

Neither the Company nor its subsidiaries (including the subsidiary enterprises of the Company) shall at any time provide any financial assistance in any form to the above obligors in order to reduce or release them from their obligations.

The above provisions shall not apply to the circumstances described in Article 35 of this Chapter.

Article 34.

For the purposes of this Chapter, the term “financial assistance” shall include (but not be limited to) financial assistance in the forms set forth below:

- (1) gift and advance;
- (2) security (including the undertaking of liability or provision of property by the guarantor in order to secure the performance of the obligation by the obligor), indemnity (not including, however, indemnity arising from the Company’s own fault), release or waiver of rights;
- (3) provision of a loan or conclusion of a contract under which the obligations of the Company are to be fulfilled before the obligations of the other party to the contract, or the amendment of, or the transfer of rights under, such loan or contract;
- (4) financial assistance in any other form if the Company is insolvent or has no net assets or if such assistance would lead to a major reduction in the Company’s net assets.

For the purposes of this Chapter, the term “assume obligations” shall include the assumption of an obligation by the obligor by reason of concluding a contract or making an arrangement (whether or not such contract or arrangement is enforceable, and whether or not such obligation is undertaken by the obligor individually or jointly with any other person) or by changing its financial position in any other way.

Article 35.

The acts listed below shall not be regarded as acts prohibited under Article 33 of these Articles of Association:

- (1) where the Company provides the relevant financial assistance genuinely for the benefit of the Company and the main purpose of the financial assistance is not the purchase of shares of the Company, or the financial assistance is an incidental part of some overall plan of the Company;
- (2) lawful distribution of the Company's property in the form of dividends;
- (3) distribution of dividends in the form of shares;
- (4) reduction of registered capital, buyback of shares, adjustment of the equity structure, etc. in accordance with these Articles of Association;
- (5) provision of a loan by the Company within its scope of business and in the ordinary course of its business (provided that the same does not lead to a reduction in the net assets of the Company, unless the financial assistance was paid out of the Company's distributable profit);
- (6) in the interests of the Company, upon a resolution of the Shareholders' Meeting, or a resolution of the Board of Directors in accordance with the Articles of Association or the authorization of the Shareholders' Meeting, the Company may provide financial assistance to others for the acquisition of the Company's or its parent company's shares, provided that the cumulative total of the financial assistance shall not exceed 10% of the total amount of the issued share capital. Resolutions made by the Board of Directors shall be approved by more than two-thirds of all the directors.

CHAPTER 6 Share Certificates and Register of Shareholders

- Article 36. The Company's shares shall be registered shares.
- The Company's share certificates in paper form shall clearly state the following main particulars:
- (1) the Company's name;
  - (2) the date of incorporation of the Company or the time of issuance of its shares;
  - (3) the class of shares, par value and the number of shares represented thereby, and in the case of issuance of shares without par value, the number of shares represented thereby;
  - (4) other matters as required by the Company Law and the securities exchange(s) on which the shares of the Company are listed;
  - (5) where the promoters' shares are in paper form, the words "promoters' shares" shall be indicated.
- Article 37. Shares of the Company may be transferred, gifted, succeeded to and mortgaged in accordance with relevant laws, administrative regulations and these Articles of Association.
- When shares are transferred and assigned, registration shall be carried out with the share registrar appointed by the Company.
- Article 38. Where the share certificate is in paper form, the serial number of the share certificate shall also be indicated and shall be signed by the legal representative of the Company. If the signatures of other senior management staff of the Company are required by the stock exchange on which Company shares are listed, the share certificates shall also be signed by such other senior management staff. The share certificates shall become effective after the Company's seal(including the corporation securities' seal) is affixed thereto or printed thereon. The affixing of the Company's seal (including the corporation securities' seal) on the share certificates shall require the authorization of the Board of Directors. The signature of the Chairman of the Board of Directors or of other relevant senior management staff on the share certificates may also be in printed form.
- Article 39. The Company shall not accept its own share certificates as the subject matter of a pledge.

Article 40. Shares held by the shareholders and de facto controllers in the Company shall be transferred in accordance with the provisions of laws, regulations, rules, normative documents and the requirements of the stock exchange where the Company's shares are listed.

The directors, supervisors, General Manager and other senior management staff of the Company shall report to the Company the shares (including preferred shares) of the Company that they hold and the changes in their shareholdings. Such shares shall be transferred in accordance with the provisions in laws, regulations, rules, normative documents and the requirements of the stock exchange where the Company's shares are listed.

If the shares are pledged within the period of transfer restriction prescribed by laws and administrative regulations, the pledgee shall not exercise the pledge right within the period of transfer restriction.

Article 41. If a director, supervisor, General Manager or other senior management staff of the Company, or a holder of at least 5 percent of the shares of the Company, sells the shares of the Company that he or she holds within six months after acquiring the same, or buys such shares back within six months after selling the same, the gains obtained therefrom shall belong to the Company and the Board of Directors of the Company shall recover such gains from him or her. However, a securities company that underwrote shares on a firm commitment basis and which, after purchasing the shares remaining after the sale, holds at least 5 percent of the shares shall not be subject to the six-month time limit when selling such shares.

Directors, supervisors, General Manager and other senior management of the Company shall report to the Company their shareholdings in the Company and changes thereof, and shall not transfer more than 25% of the total number of shares of the Company they hold each year during their terms of office as determined at the time of their assumption of office; they shall not transfer the shares of the Company they hold within half a year after they leave their positions; if they leave their positions before the expiration of their terms of office, they shall not transfer more than 25% of the total number of shares of the Company they hold each year before the expiration of their original terms of office and within six months after the expiration of their original terms of office.

The shares held by directors, supervisors, General Manager and other senior management and natural person shareholders referred to in the preceding paragraph include the shares held by their spouses, parents and children and held in others' accounts.

If the Board of Directors of the Company fails to act in accordance with the preceding paragraph, shareholders shall have the right to demand that the Board of Directors act within 30 days. If the Board of Directors of the Company fails to act within such time period, shareholders shall have the right, in the interests of the Company, to directly institute a legal action in a court in their own name.

If the Board of Directors of the Company fails to act in accordance with the first paragraph, the responsible directors shall be jointly and severally liable in accordance with the laws.

Article 42. Where laws, regulations, departmental rules, regulatory documents and securities regulatory authorities of the place where the Company's shares are listed stipulate on the period of closure of the register of members prior to a Shareholders' Meeting or the record date set by the Company for the purpose of distribution of dividends, such provisions shall prevail.

The register of holders of overseas listed foreign shares listed in Hong Kong shall not be closed for more than 30 days in total within one year, but may be extended for a further period of up to 30 days upon approval by the Shareholders' Meeting. If the Company receives an application for inspection of the register of members during the aforesaid period of closure of the register of members, it shall, at the request of the applicant, issue a certificate signed by the company secretary, specifying the approval authority and the period for closure of the register of members.

Article 43. When the Company is to convene a Shareholders' Meeting, to distribute dividends, to be liquidated or to carry out other acts requiring confirmation of equity interests, the Board of Directors or the convener of the Shareholders' Meeting shall decide upon a date as the record date. Shareholders whose names appear on the register at closing on the record date shall be the shareholders entitled to the relevant rights and interests.

CHAPTER 7 Rights and Obligations of the Shareholders

Article 44. The Company's shareholders are persons that lawfully hold shares of the Company and whose names are entered in the register of shareholders.

Shareholders shall enjoy rights and bear obligations according to the class and quantity of shares held by them. Holders of shares of the same class shall enjoy equal rights and bear equal obligations.

For the joint shareholders, if one of the joint shareholders has passed away, the surviving shareholders shall be deemed by the Company to have the ownership of the related shares, but the Board of Directors is entitled to ask for the provision of the suitable death certificate for the purpose of revision of the register of shareholders. For the joint shareholders of any classes of shares, only the first named shareholder in the register of shareholders has the right to receive the share certificates of the related shares, receive the notice of the Company, attend the Shareholders' Meeting and exercise his or her voting right; while, any notice delivered to the said shareholder shall be deemed as the notice has been delivered to all of the joint shareholders of the related shares.

Article 45. Holders of ordinary shares of the Company shall enjoy the following rights:

- (1) collect dividends and other profit distributions on the basis of the number of shares held by them;
- (2) demand, convene, preside over, participate or appoint their proxies to participate in Shareholders' Meeting in accordance with laws, and exercise voting rights pursuant to their shareholdings;
- (3) supervise and control the Company's business activities, and raise suggestions or inquiries;
- (4) transfer, donate, or pledge shares in accordance with laws, administrative regulations and the Company's Articles of Association;
- (5) have the right to inspect or make copies of the Articles of Association, register of shareholders, meeting minutes of the Shareholders' Meeting, resolution of the meeting of the Board of Directors, and resolution of the meeting of the Supervisory Committee and financial or accounting reports;
- (6) participate in the distribution of the surplus assets of the Company according to their shareholding when the Company is terminated or liquidated;

- (7) with respect to any shareholder, who objects to the resolution of the Shareholders' Meeting on the merger or division of the Company, requires the Company to buy back his or her shares;
- (8) institute a legal action in a People's Court and claim relevant rights, in accordance with the Company Law, other laws, administrative rules and regulations or the Articles of Association, against the acts that damage the Company's interests or infringe the legitimate rights of the shareholders;
- (9) other rights conferred by laws, administrative rules and regulations and the Company's Articles of Association.

Article 46.

Holders of common shares of the Company bear the following obligations:

- (1) to comply with laws, administrative regulations and the Articles of Association of the Company;
- (2) to pay subscription moneys according to the shares subscribed for by them and the method of acquiring such shares;
- (3) not to return their shares except in circumstances specified in laws and regulations;
- (4) not to abuse their shareholders' rights to harm the interests of the Company or those of other shareholders; if a shareholder abuses his or her shareholder rights, thereby causing the Company or another shareholder to sustain a loss, he or she shall be held liable for damages in accordance with laws; if a shareholder abuses the Company's independent legal person status or shareholders' limited liability to evade a debt, thereby materially harming the interests of a creditor of the Company, he or she shall bear joint and several liability for the debt of the Company;
- (5) to submit a written report to the Company on the date when they who have 5% or above of interests in shares carrying voting rights charged their shares;
- (6) other obligations imposed by laws, administrative rules and regulations and these Articles of Association.

Shareholders shall not bear any liability for further contributions to share capital other than the conditions agreed to by the subscribers for the shares at the time of subscription.

Article 47. The controlling shareholders and actual controllers of the Company may not take advantage of their connected relationships to harm the interests of the Company, and they shall be held liable for damages if they violate regulations which causes the Company to sustain a loss.

The controlling shareholders and the actual controllers of the Company bear a fiduciary duty toward the Company and retail shareholders. The controlling shareholder shall exercise its rights as an investor in strict accordance with laws. It may not use such means as a profit distribution, asset restructuring, investment in a third party, appropriation of funds, loan security, etc. or use its controlling position to harm the lawful rights and interests of the Company and the retail shareholders.

Article 48. In addition to the obligations imposed by laws, administrative rules and regulations and the listing rules of the stock exchange on which Company shares are listed, the controlling shareholder of the Company may not, in exercising its shareholder powers, make decisions prejudicial to the interests of all or some of the shareholders due to the exercise of its voting rights on the issues set forth below:

- (1) relieving a director or supervisor of the responsibility to act honestly in the best interests of the Company;
- (2) approving that a director or supervisor (for his or her own or another person's benefit) deprive the Company of its property in any way, including (but not limited to) any opportunities that are advantageous to the Company;
- (3) approving that a director or supervisor (for his or her own or another person's benefit) deprive other shareholders of their individual rights or interests, including (but not limited to) rights to distributions and voting rights, but excluding a restructuring of the Company submitted to the Shareholders' Meeting for adoption in accordance with these Articles of Association.

Article 49. For the purposes of the preceding Article, the term “controlling shareholder” shall refer to a person that satisfies any of the following conditions:

- (1) a person who, acting alone or in concert with others, has the power to elect not less than one half of the directors;
- (2) a person who, acting alone or in concert with others, has the power to exercise or control 30 percent or more of the Company’s voting rights;
- (3) a person who, acting alone or in concert with others, holds 30 percent or more of the issued and outstanding shares of the Company;
- (4) a person who, acting alone or in concert with others, has de facto control of the Company in any other manner.

CHAPTER 8 Shareholders’ Meeting

Article 50. The Shareholders’ Meeting shall be the organ of authority of the Company and shall exercise its functions and powers in accordance with the laws.

Article 51. The Shareholders’ Meeting shall exercise the following functions and powers:

- (1) to elect and replace directors and decide on matters concerning the remuneration of directors;
- (2) to elect and replace the supervisors who are to be appointed from among the shareholders’ representatives and decide on matters concerning the remuneration of supervisors;
- (3) to consider and approve reports of the Board of Directors;
- (4) to consider and approve reports of the Supervisory Committee;
- (5) to consider and approve the Company’s profit distribution plans and plans for making up losses;
- (6) to pass resolutions concerning the increase or reduction of the Company’s registered capital;

- (7) to pass resolutions on the merger, division, dissolution or liquidation of the Company;
- (8) to pass resolutions on the issuance of corporate bonds;
- (9) to pass resolutions on the engagement, dismissal or non-renewal of the engagement of accounting firms by the Company;
- (10) to amend the Articles of Association of the Company;
- (11) to decide on transactions in which the amount of material assets purchased or sold by the Company within one year exceeds 25% of the latest audited total assets of the Company;
- (12) to pass resolutions on matters relating to the security for third parties that laws, administrative regulations and the Company's Articles of Association require to be resolved by the Shareholders' Meeting;
- (13) to consider and approve changes in the use of raising funds;
- (14) to consider and approve the employee stock ownership plan, stock incentive plan or other share-based compensation (such as allotment or share options, etc.) granted to employees;
- (15) other matters that laws, administrative regulations, departmental rules or the Company's Articles of Association require to be resolved by the Shareholders' Meeting.

The Shareholders' Meeting may delegate or entrust relevant matters to be handled by the Board of Directors. The Shareholders' Meeting may delegate the Board of Directors to resolve on the issuance of corporate bonds.

Article 52.

Any external guarantee matters of the Company shall be passed by through deliberation by the Board of Directors. The following guarantee matters after the deliberation by the Board of Directors shall be submitted to the Shareholders' Meeting for approval:

- (1) any guarantee provided after the total guarantee amount of the Company and its holding subsidiaries exceeds 50 percent of the latest audited net assets;
- (2) any guarantee provided for those whose asset to liability ratio exceeds 70 percent;
- (3) any guarantee with a single amount guaranteed exceeding 10 percent of the latest audited net assets;
- (4) security to be provided for a shareholder, the actual controller or a connected person thereof;
- (5) any guarantee provided after the gross amount of external guarantees of the Company exceeds 30% of its latest audited total assets;
- (6) any guarantee provided by the Company within one year of which the amount exceeds 30% of its latest audited total assets;
- (7) other guarantee matters to be submitted to Shareholders' Meeting for review and approval as required by laws, administrative regulations and the Articles of Association of the Company.

If a director, the General Manager or other senior officer violates a provision on the approval authority or consideration procedure for the provision of security to third parties as specified in laws or these Articles of Association, thereby causing the Company to sustain a loss, he or she shall be held liable for damages and the Company may institute a legal action against him or her in accordance with the laws.

Article 53. The matters that shall be decided by the Shareholders' Meeting in accordance with the laws, the administrative regulations and rules, departmental rules as well as the Articles of Association must be reviewed by the Shareholders' Meeting, in order to protect the decision-making power of the Company's shareholders on such matters. When lawful, necessary and reasonable, the Shareholders' Meeting may authorize the Board of Directors to decide to the extent authorized on specific matters that relate to the matters to be resolved and that cannot be promptly decided on at the Shareholders' Meeting.

As for the authorization of the Board of Directors by the Shareholders' Meeting, the ordinary resolutions of the Shareholders' Meeting shall be adopted by shareholders in attendance (including proxies) holding more than half of the voting rights; the special resolutions of the Shareholders' Meeting shall be adopted by shareholders in attendance (including proxies) holding at least two-thirds of the voting rights. The content of authorization should be clear and specific.

Article 54. Without the prior approval of the Shareholders' Meeting, the Company may not conclude any contract with any person other than a director, a supervisor, a General Manager or other senior management staff of the Company for the delegation of the whole business management or important business management of the Company to that person.

Article 55. Shareholders' meetings can be divided into annual shareholders' meetings and extraordinary shareholders' meetings. Annual meetings shall be convened once a year and shall be held within six months following the preceding fiscal year.

The Board of Directors shall convene an extraordinary shareholders' meeting within two months after the occurrence of any of the following circumstances:

- (1) the number of directors is less than the number provided for in the Company Law or less than two-thirds prescribed in the Articles of Association of the Company;
- (2) the losses of the Company that have not been made up reach one-third of the total share capital of the Company;
- (3) upon the request of a shareholder who alone has held or shareholders who together have held at least 10 percent (including 10 percent) of the shares of the Company (the shareholding referred to above shall be calculated as of the day on which the written request is made);
- (4) The Board of Directors considers that there is a need or the Supervisory Committee proposes a meeting;
- (5) other circumstances stipulated by laws, administrative regulations, departmental rules or these Articles of Association.

Article 56. When the Company is to hold a general shareholders' meeting, the convener shall, by way of announcement, 45 days (including the meeting day) prior to the meeting, inform all the shareholders of the matters to be considered at and the date and place of the meeting. Shareholders that intend to attend the meeting shall, on the date set forth in the announcement, serve a written reply on the Company stating that they will attend the meeting.

Based on the written replies received, the Company shall calculate the number of voting shares represented by the shareholders intending to attend the meeting.

Article 57. The motion of the Shareholders' Meeting shall be the specific motion raised for the matters to be discussed at the Shareholders' Meeting. The motion of the Shareholders' Meeting shall meet the following requirements:

- (1) its content does not contravene laws, administrative regulations and these Articles of Association and falls within duties of the Shareholder' Meeting;
- (2) it has specific subject and detailed matters to be examined at the meeting;
- (3) it shall be submitted or sent to the Board of Directors in writing.

Article 58. When the Company is to hold an annual Shareholders' Meeting, the Board of Directors, the Supervisory Committee and a shareholder alone or shareholders together holding at least 1 percent of the Company's shares shall be entitled to propose motions to the Company.

A shareholder alone or shareholders together holding at least 1 percent of the shares of the Company may submit extempore motions in writing to the convener 10 days prior to the date of such meeting. The convener shall issue a supplementary notice of the Shareholders' Meeting and make a public announcement of the contents of such extempore motion within two days after receipt of the motion, excluding extempore motion that violates laws, administrative regulations, or the provisions of the Articles of Association, or is not within the scope of the powers of the Shareholders' Meeting.

Except as provided in the preceding paragraph, the convener may not make any changes to the motions set forth in the notice of the Shareholders' Meeting or add any new motions once the notice and announcement of the Shareholders' Meeting have been issued.

Article 59. The matters to be discussed at or decided by the Shareholders' Meeting shall be determined in accordance with the Company Law and these Articles of Association. The Shareholders' Meeting shall make decision on any matters prescribed by these Articles of Association.

The Shareholders' Meeting may not vote and pass resolution on motions that are not set forth in the Article 56 and Article 58 or that are not consistent with Article 57 of these Articles of Association.

Article 60. The notice of a Shareholders' Meeting shall:

- (1) be made in writing;
- (2) specify the place, time and term of the meeting;
- (3) describe the matters and proposals to be discussed at the meeting;
- (4) provide to the shareholders the information and explanations necessary to make informed decisions on the matters to be discussed; without limiting the generality of the foregoing, when the Company proposes a merger, buyback of shares, restructuring of share capital or other reorganization, it shall provide the specific conditions and contract (if any) of the transaction contemplated and earnestly explain the cause and effect of the transaction;
- (5) contain a disclosure of the nature and extent of the material interests, if any, of any director, supervisor, the General Manager or other senior management staff in any matter to be discussed; and an explanation of the difference, if any, between the way in which the matter to be discussed would affect such director, supervisor, the General Manager or other senior management staff in his or her capacity as shareholder and the way in which such matter would affect other shareholders of the same class;
- (6) contain the full text of any special resolution proposed to be moved at the meeting;

- (7) contain conspicuously a statement that all shareholders of ordinary shares (including shareholders of preference shares with restored voting rights) are entitled to attend the Shareholders' Meeting, and may appoint proxy(ies) in writing to attend and vote at the meeting on their behalves. Shareholders entitled to attend and vote are entitled to appoint one or more proxies to attend and vote on their behalves, and that such proxies need not be shareholders of the Company;
- (8) state the time and place for serving the instruments of appointment for voting at the meeting.
- (9) specify the record date for shareholders who are entitled to attend the Shareholders' Meeting;
- (10) state the name and telephone number of the regular contact person of the meeting;
- (11) specify the time and procedures for voting online or by other means.

Article 61.

Notice of a Shareholders' Meeting shall be delivered to all shareholders (whether or not entitled to vote thereat) by the Company.

For the holders of domestic shares, notice of a Shareholders' Meeting shall be delivered by way of public announcement. The notice announcement shall be published in one or more newspapers or periodicals designated by the securities regulatory authority of the State Council, on the websites of the Shanghai Stock Exchange and of the Company. Once the announcement is made, all the holders of domestic shares shall be deemed to have received the notice of the relevant Shareholders' Meeting.

For holders of H Shares, notice of a Shareholders' Meeting may be delivered or provided by means as specified in Article 221 of these Articles of Association, subject to laws, regulations and the relevant listing rules of the place where the Company's shares are listed.

Article 62. Any shareholder entitled to attend and vote at a Shareholders' Meeting shall have the right to appoint one or more persons (who need not be shareholders) as his or her proxies to attend and vote on his or her behalf. Such proxy may exercise the following rights in accordance with his or her appointment by the shareholder:

- (1) the shareholders right to be heard at the Shareholders' Meeting;
- (2) the right to demand or join in the demand for a ballot;
- (3) unless otherwise provided in accordance with the applicable listing rules or other securities laws and regulations, the voting rights shall be exercised by show of hands or by ballot, except that if a shareholder has appointed more than one proxy, such proxies may only exercise their voting rights by ballot.

Where a shareholder appoints a proxy to attend the Shareholders' Meeting, the matters, authority and period for which the proxy is to act shall be clearly defined; the proxy shall submit the power of attorney by the shareholder to the Company and exercise the voting rights within the scope of the authorization.

Article 63. Shareholders shall appoint their proxies by written instruments, which shall be signed by the principals or their agents appointed in writing. If the principal is a legal person, the instrument shall be under the seal of the legal person or signed by its director(s) or duly authorized agent(s). The instrument of appointment shall specify the number of shares of the principal that the proxy represents. In case more than one person are appointed to be the proxies of shareholders, the instrument of appointment shall specify the number of voting shares which each proxy represents.

Article 64. The instrument appointing a voting proxy shall be deposited at the domicile of the Company or at such other place as specified in the notice of the meeting within 24 hours prior to the meeting at which the proxy is authorized to vote or 24 hours prior to the specified time of the vote. If the instrument is signed by another person authorized by the principal, the power of attorney or other document authorizing the signature shall be notarized. The notarized power of attorney or other authorizing document shall be deposited together with the instrument appointing the voting proxy at the domicile of the Company or at such other place as specified in the notice of the meeting.

If the principal is a legal person, its legal representative or the person authorized by a resolution of its Board of Directors or other decision-making body shall attend the Shareholders' Meeting of the Company as the representative of such legal person.

Where the shareholder is a recognised clearing house (or its proxy) within the meaning of the Securities and Futures Ordinance of Hong Kong, the shareholder may authorise a representative of the Company or one or more persons as it thinks fit to act as its representative (s) at any Shareholders' Meeting or any class meeting of shareholders or creditors' meeting provided that the proxy (ies) shall have the same statutory rights as other shareholders, including the right to speak and vote; however, if more than one person is so authorised, the power of attorney shall specify the number and class of shares in respect of which each such person is so authorised. The persons so authorised may exercise the rights on behalf of the recognised clearing house (or its agent) as if they were the individual shareholders of the Company.

Article 65. Any form issued by the Board of Directors of the Company to the shareholders for the appointment of proxies shall give the shareholders free choice to instruct their proxies to cast an affirmative or negative vote and enable the shareholders to give separate instructions on each matter to be voted on in connection with each point of discussion of the meeting. The instrument of appointment shall specify that in the absence of instructions from the shareholder, the proxy may vote as he or she thinks fit.

Article 66. A vote made in accordance with the terms of an instrument of appointment shall be valid notwithstanding the previous death or loss of capacity of the principal or revocation of the proxy or of the authority under which the proxy was executed, or the transfer of the relevant shares, as long as the Company did not receive written notice of the event before the relevant meeting commenced.

Article 67. When the Shareholders' Meeting considers matters relating to a connected transaction, the connected shareholders shall not participate in the vote, and the number of voting shares represented by them shall not count toward the total number of valid voting shares. The announcement of the resolutions of the Shareholders' Meeting shall fully disclose the way the unconnected shareholders voted.

Article 68. Any proxy who represents an individual shareholder to attend the Shareholders' Meeting shall provide his or her identification document as well as the power of attorney signed by the principal or the representative authorized by the principal and shareholding certificates. In the case of the legal representative of a corporate shareholder appoints a proxy to attend the meeting, the proxy shall provide his or her identification document as well as the power of attorney signed by the legal representative and shareholding certificates. Any proxy authorized by way of a resolution of its Board of Directors or other decision making body who attend the Shareholders' Meeting shall provide his or her identification document as well as the power of attorney signed by the Board of Directors or other decision making body and shareholding certificates and under the seal of the legal person. The instrument of appointment shall specify the date of issuance.

Article 69. The Board of Directors, independent directors, shareholders holding more than one percent of the voting shares or investor protection institutions established in accordance with laws, administrative regulations or the provisions of the CSRC may act as soliciting parties, either by themselves or by entrusting securities companies or securities service institutions, to publicly request shareholders to appoint them to attend the Shareholders' Meeting on their behalves, and to exercise shareholders' rights such as proposal rights and voting rights on their behalves. The soliciting parties shall disclose the solicitation announcement and relevant solicitation documents in accordance with the law and regulations, and the Company shall provide assistance. The soliciting parties shall not publicly solicit shareholders' rights in a paid or disguised paid manner. The public solicitation of rights shall be done in compliance with the provisions of the relevant regulatory authorities and the stock exchange where the Company's shares are listed and traded.

Article 70. Resolutions of the Shareholders' Meeting are divided into ordinary resolutions and special resolutions.

Ordinary resolutions of the Shareholders' Meeting shall be adopted by shareholders in attendance (including proxies) holding more than half of the voting rights. Special resolutions of the Shareholders' Meeting shall be adopted by shareholders in attendance (including proxies) holding at least two-thirds of the voting rights.

The shareholders (including their proxies) attending the meeting shall express one of the following opinions on the proposals submitted for voting: for, against or abstention.

Article 71.

When shareholders (including proxies) vote at the Shareholders' Meeting, they shall exercise their voting rights according to the number of voting shares that they represent. Except for the cumulative voting system adopted by the directors or supervisors provided in Article 98 of these Articles of Association, each share shall have one vote. No voting rights shall be attached to the Company shares held by the Company, and such shares shall not be counted among the total number of voting shares present at the Shareholders' Meeting.

Subject to the applicable listing rules as amended from time to time, where any shareholder is required to abstain from voting on any particular matter being considered or restricted to voting only for or only against any particular matter being considered, any votes cast by or on behalf of such shareholder in contravention of such requirement or restriction shall not be counted.

If the purchase of the voting shares of the Company by a shareholder violates the provisions of paragraphs 1 and 2 of Article sixty-three of the Securities Law, such shares in excess of the prescribed proportion shall not exercise the voting rights within thirty-six months after the purchase, and shall not be included in the total number of voting shares represented by shareholders attending the Shareholders' Meeting.

Article 72.

The voting at the Shareholders' Meeting shall be conducted by a registered poll.

Before voting on a resolution at the Shareholders' Meeting, two shareholder representatives shall be elected as vote counters and scrutinizers. Any shareholders or their proxies who are related to the matter to be considered shall not participate in vote counting or scrutinizing.

When voting on a resolution at the Shareholders' Meeting, lawyers, shareholder representatives, supervisor representatives and organizations or persons qualified for vote counting as stipulated in the relevant Listing Rules shall be jointly responsible for vote counting and scrutinizing and announcing the voting results onsite.

The voting results of the resolutions at the Shareholders' Meetings shall be recorded in the minutes of the meeting.

Shareholders of the Company or their proxies voting through the internet or other ways shall have the right to check their own votes cast through the corresponding voting system.

Article 73. The Shareholders' Meeting of the Company may be convened and voted by means of electronic communication.

The Company may use various means to facilitate shareholders' participation in the Shareholders' Meetings, the use of modern information technology, such as the provision of an online voting platform as a prioritized means, provided that the legality and validity of the Shareholders' Meeting is assured.

The same voting right shall only be exercised by one of the voting means including on-site, via internet or by other means (if any). In the event that the same voting right has been exercised repeatedly, the results of the first voting shall prevail.

Article 74. Decisions of the Shareholders' Meeting on any of the following matters shall be adopted by ordinary resolution:

- (1) to elect and change directors and decide on matters concerning the remuneration of directors;
- (2) to elect and change the supervisors who are to be appointed from among the shareholders' representatives and decide on matters concerning the remuneration of supervisors;
- (3) to consider and approve reports of the Board of Directors;
- (4) to consider and approve reports of the Supervisory Committee;
- (5) to consider and approve the Company's profit distribution plans and plans for making up losses;
- (6) to pass resolutions on the engagement, dismissal or non-renewal of the engagement of accounting firms by the Company;
- (7) to consider and approve changes in the use of raising funds;
- (8) the matters other than those which laws, administrative rules and regulations or these Articles of Association require to be adopted by special resolution.

Article 75. Decisions of the Shareholders' Meeting on any of the following matters shall be adopted by special resolution:

- (1) the increase or reduction of the registered capital and issuance of any class of shares, warrants or other similar securities of the Company;
- (2) the issuance of corporate bonds or the authorization to the Board of Directors to resolve on the issuance of corporate bonds;
- (3) division, split, merger, dissolution and liquidation, as well as major acquisitions or disposals of the Company;
- (4) the amendment of these Articles of Association;
- (5) the amendment of the rights of any class shareholders;
- (6) to resolve matters relating to the purchase and/or sale by the Company within one year of material assets valued at more than 25 percent of the Company's total assets;
- (7) provisions of security that laws, administrative regulations, as well as these Articles of Association specify to be approved at the Shareholders' Meeting;
- (8) employee shareholding schemes, equity incentive schemes or other share-related compensation granted to employees (such as allotment or share options, etc.);
- (9) other matters which laws, administrative rules and regulations or these Articles of Association require to be adopted by special resolution or which the Shareholders' Meeting considers will have a material impact on the Company and therefore require, by an ordinary resolution, to be adopted by special resolution.

Article 76. Any resolution adopted at the Shareholders' Meeting shall be consistent with the relevant provisions of Chinese laws, administrative regulations and rules, as well as these Articles of Association.

Article 77. In case that the independent directors, supervisory committee or shareholders alone or together holding at least 10 percent of the Company's shares request to call an extraordinary Shareholders' Meeting or classified shareholders' meeting, the following procedures shall be followed:

- (1) The proponent(s) may sign one or more written requests of identical form and substance requesting that the Board of Directors convene an Extraordinary Shareholders' Meeting. The Board of Directors shall give a written response on whether or not it agrees to call such extraordinary shareholders' meeting within 10 days after receipt of the proposal to call such meeting.

- (2) If the Board of Directors agrees to call an Extraordinary Shareholders' Meeting, it shall issue a notice calling such meeting within 5 days after it has so resolved. The consent of the relevant original proponent(s) shall be secured if any change is to be made in the notice to the original request.
- (3) If the Board of Directors does not agree to call an Extraordinary Shareholders' Meeting, the reasons shall be stated and announced.
- (4) If the Board of Directors does not agree the proposal of the Supervisory Committee to call an Extraordinary Shareholders' Meeting or fails to give a response within 10 days after receipt of the request, it shall be deemed to be unable to or have failed to perform its duty of convening the Shareholders' Meeting, and the Supervisory Committee may itself convene and preside over such meeting. The procedure according to which they convene such meeting shall, to the extent possible, be identical to the procedure according to which Shareholders' Meetings are to be convened by the Board of Directors.
- (5) If the Board of Directors does not agree the request of the shareholders to call an Extraordinary Shareholders' Meeting, or does not reply without any reason within 10 days upon receipt of the request, the shareholders shall have the right to propose to the Supervisory Committee in writing that it calls the Extraordinary Shareholders' Meeting.
- (6) If the Supervisory Committee agrees to call the Extraordinary Shareholders' Meeting, it shall issue a notice calling such meeting within 5 days after receipt of the request. The consent of the relevant original proponent(s) shall be secured if any change is to be made in the notice to the original request.
- (7) If the Supervisory Committee fails to issue a notice calling the Shareholders' Meeting by the prescribed deadline, it shall be deemed to have failed to convene and preside over such meeting, and a shareholder or shareholders of the Company individually or collectively holding not less than 10 percent of the Company's shares for not less than 90 consecutive days may himself/themselves convene and preside over such meeting. The procedure according to which they convene such meeting shall, to the extent possible, be identical to the procedure according to which Shareholders' Meetings are to be convened by the Board of Directors.

When the Supervisory Committee or shareholders itself/themselves convene a Shareholders' Meeting, the Board of Directors shall be informed in written notice; the filing procedures shall be handled at relevant department in charge in accordance with the applicable requirements. The Board of Directors and the Secretary to the Board of Directors shall give their cooperation. The Board of Directors shall provide the register of shareholders as of the date of record. The reasonable expenses incurred by such meetings shall be borne by the Company and shall be deducted from the sums owed by the Company to the negligent directors (if any).

Article 78.

Shareholders' Meetings shall be convened and presided over by the Chairman of the Board. If the Chairman of the Board fails or is unable to perform his or her duties, the meeting shall be presided over by the Vice Chairman of the Board. If the Vice Chairman of the Board is not designated or the Vice Chairman of the Board fails or is unable to perform his or her duties, the meeting shall be presided over by the director jointly elected by more than half of the directors. Where no chairman is designated, the shareholders attending the meeting may elect one person to preside over the meeting. If for any reason the shareholders are unable to elect a chairman, the shareholder holding the largest number of voting shares and attending the meeting (whether in person or by proxy) shall preside over the meeting.

At a Shareholders' Meeting convened by the Supervisory Committee, the Chairman of the Supervisory Committee shall preside. If the Chairman of the Supervisory Committee fails or is unable to perform his or her duties, the meeting shall be presided over by the supervisor jointly elected by more than half of the supervisors.

If a Shareholders' Meeting is convened by a shareholder himself or shareholders themselves, the meeting shall be presided over by the representative selected by the convener(s).

While a Shareholders' Meeting is holding, if the chairman of the meeting violates the rules of procedure, making continuance of the Shareholders' Meeting impossible, with the consent of shareholders holding more than one half of the voting rights present at the meeting, the Shareholders' Meeting may elect a person to serve as chairman of the meeting and the meeting shall continue.

Article 79.

The resolutions adopted at the Shareholders' Meeting shall be announced in accordance with the relevant provisions of the applicable laws and stock exchange where the Company's stock is traded.

Article 80. If the chairman of the meeting has any doubt concerning the result of the vote on any resolution, he or she may organize a recount of the number of votes cast. If the chairman of the meeting does not conduct a recount of the votes and an attending shareholder or proxy challenges the result of a vote announced by the chairman of the meeting, he or she has the right to demand a vote recount immediately following the announcement of the result, in which case the chairman of the meeting shall promptly organize a recount of the votes.

Article 81. Shareholders' Meeting shall have minutes, which shall be taken by the secretary of the Board of Directors. The records of the of meetings shall be signed by directors, supervisors, secretary of the Board, the convener or their representatives and the host (chairman of the meeting) present at the meeting.

The adopted resolutions of Shareholders' Meeting shall be kept as the Company's resolutions of meetings. The records and resolutions of meetings shall be written in Chinese. The minutes and resolutions of meetings together with the valid information on the sign-in register of attending shareholders and the instruments of appointment of proxies, details of voting on the network and other voting methods (if any), shall be kept at the Company's domicile for at least 10 years.

Article 82. Shareholders may examine photocopies of the minutes of meetings during the Company's office hours without charge. If any shareholder demands from the Company a photocopy of relevant minutes of meetings, the Company shall send such photocopies within seven days after receiving payment of reasonable charges.

CHAPTER 9 Special Voting Procedures for Class Shareholders

Article 83. Shareholders that hold different classes of shares shall be class shareholders.

Class shareholders shall enjoy rights and bear obligations in accordance with laws, administrative rules and regulations and these Articles of Association.

Article 84. In case that the Company intends to alter or abolish the rights of classified shareholders, the Shareholders' Meeting shall pass it through a special resolution and respective meetings of stockholders convened by the affected classified shareholders shall pass it on pursuant to the Article 85 to Article 89 of these Articles of Association.

Article 85.

The following situations shall be regarded as alternation or abolishment of the rights of a certain classified shareholder:

- (1) the increase or decrease of the number of shares of such class, or increase or decrease of the number of shares of a class having voting rights, distribution rights or other privileges equal or superior to those of the shares of such class;
- (2) the conversion of all or part of the shares of such class into shares of another class, or the conversion of all or part of the shares of another class into shares of such class or the grant of the right to such change;
- (3) the removal or reduction of rights to accrued dividends or cumulative dividends attached to shares of such class;
- (4) the reduction or removal of a dividend preference, or a property distribution preference during liquidation of the Company, attached to shares of such class;
- (5) the addition, removal or reduction of share conversion rights, options, voting rights, transfer rights, preemptive rights to rights issues or rights to acquire securities of the Company attached to shares of such class;
- (6) the removal or reduction of rights to receive amounts payable by the Company in particular currencies attached to shares of such class;
- (7) the creation of a new class of shares with voting rights, distribution rights or other privileges equal or superior to those of the shares of that class;
- (8) the imposition of restrictions or additional restrictions on the transfer or ownership of shares of such class;
- (9) the issuance of rights to subscribe for, or convert into, shares of such class or another class;
- (10) the increase of the rights and privileges of shares of another class;
- (11) such restructuring of the Company as would cause shareholders of different classes to bear disproportionate liabilities under the restructuring;
- (12) the amendment or deletion of the provisions of this Chapter.

Article 86. Shareholders of the affected class, whether or not otherwise having the right to vote at Shareholders' Meeting, shall have right to vote at class shareholders' meetings in respect of any of the matters referred to in items (2) to (8) and items (11) to (12) of Article 85, except that interested shareholders shall not have the right to vote at class shareholders' meetings.

For the purposes of the preceding paragraph, the term "interested shareholders" shall have the following meaning:

- (1) if the Company is to issue a buyback offer to all of the shareholders in the same proportion or is to buy back its own shares through open transactions on a stock exchange in accordance with Article 31 of these Articles of Association, the controlling shareholder as defined in Article 49 of these Articles of Association shall be an "interested shareholder";
- (2) if the Company is to buy back its own shares by agreements outside a stock exchange in accordance with Article 31 of these Articles of Association, holders of shares to which such agreements relate shall be "interested shareholders";
- (3) shareholders that, under a proposed restructuring of the Company, would bear liabilities in a proportion smaller than that of the liabilities borne by other shareholders of the same class, and shareholders that have an interest in a proposed restructuring of the Company that is different from the interest in such proposed restructuring of other shareholders of the same class, shall be "interested shareholders".

Article 87. Resolutions of a class shareholders' meeting may be passed only by two-thirds or more of the equity interests carrying voting rights that are represented at the class shareholders' meeting in accordance with Article 86.

Subject to the applicable listing rules as amended from time to time, where any shareholder is required to abstain from voting on any resolution being considered at the class shareholders' meeting or restricted to voting only for or only against any resolution being considered at the class shareholders' meeting, any votes cast by or on behalf of such shareholder in contravention of such requirement or restriction shall not be counted.

Article 88. When the Company is to hold a class shareholders' meeting, it shall issue a written notice 45 days prior to the meeting informing all the registered shareholders of that class of the matters to be considered at and the date and place of the meeting. Shareholders that intend to attend the meeting shall, within 20 days prior the day on which the meeting is to be held, serve a written reply on the Company stating that they will attend the meeting.

If the number of shares carrying the right to vote at the meeting represented by the shareholders intending to attend the meeting is not less than half of the total number of shares of that class carrying the right to vote at the meeting, the Company may hold the class shareholders' meeting. If not, the Company shall, within five days, inform the shareholders once again of the matters to be considered at and the date and place of the meeting in the form of a public announcement. After such notification by public announcement, the Company may hold the class shareholders' meeting.

Article 89. If a class shareholders' meeting is to be called by issuance of a meeting notice, notice of such meeting need be delivered only to the shareholders entitled to vote thereat.

The procedure according to which class shareholders' meetings are held shall, to the extent possible, be identical to the procedure according to which Shareholders' Meeting is held. Provisions of these Articles of Association relevant to procedures for the holding of Shareholders' Meeting shall be applicable to class shareholders' meetings.

Article 90. Apart from other class shareholders, shareholders with domestic shares and shareholders with overseas listed foreign investment shares are regarded as different classified shareholders.

The special voting procedures for class shareholders shall not apply in the following circumstances:

- (1) where, as approved by way of a special resolution of the Shareholders' Meeting, the Company issues, either separately or concurrently, domestic investment shares and overseas listed foreign investment shares every 12 months, and the quantity of domestic investment shares and overseas listed foreign investment shares intended to be issued does not exceed 20 percent of the outstanding shares of the respective classes; or
- (2) where the plan for the issuance of domestic investment shares and overseas listed foreign investment shares upon the establishment of the Company is completed within 15 months from the date of approval by the State Council's securities authority.

CHAPTER 10 Party Organizations (the Party Committee)

- Article 91. The Company shall set up the Committee of the Communist Party of China of Aluminum Corporation of China Limited (the “Party Committee”), consisting of one secretary, one to two deputy secretary and several members. Eligible members of the Party Committee may serve as members of the Board of Directors, the Supervisory Committee and senior management through statutory procedures, while eligible Party members of the Board of Directors, the Supervisory Committee and senior management may also serve as members of the Party Committee pursuant to relevant provisions and procedures. Meanwhile, the Company shall also set up a disciplinary committee in accordance with the provisions, which shall consist of one secretary and several members.
- Article 92. The Party Committee shall fulfil the following responsibilities in accordance with the Constitution of the Communist Party of China and other regulations as prescribed by the Party:
- (1) To ensure and supervise the Company’s implementation of policies and guidelines of the Party and the State, and implement major strategic decisions of the Central Committee of the Party and the State Council, as well as important work arrangements of the Party organizations of higher levels.
  - (2) To strengthen its leadership and gate keeping role in the process of selection and appointment of personnel, and adhere to the principle of the Party supervising the performance of officials while ensuring the lawful selection by the Board of Directors of the senior management and the lawful exercise of the power of the senior management in the employment of personnel.
  - (3) To research and discuss the reform, development and stability of the Company, major operational and management issues and major issues concerning employees’ interests, and provide comments and suggestions; to support the Shareholders’ Meeting, the Board of Directors, the Supervisory Committee and the senior management in performing their duties in accordance with law, and support the employee representatives’ meeting in carrying out its work.
  - (4) To undertake the main responsibility of comprehensive and strict Party management; to lead the Company’s ideological and political work, the united front work, the spiritual civilization construction, the corporate culture cultivation as well as the work of groups such as the labor union and the Communist Youth League; to lead the construction of the Party’s working style and its clean and honest administration, and support the discipline inspection committee in earnestly performing its supervisory responsibilities.

- (5) To strengthen the Company's grassroots Party organizations and their team building, give full play to the role of the Party branches as strongholds and to the role of the Party members as pioneers and fine examples, and unite and lead officials and employees to devote themselves into the reform and development of the Company.
- (6) To handle other important matters within the scope of duties of the Party Committee.

CHAPTER 11 Board of Directors

Article 93.

The Company shall establish a Board of Directors. The Board of Directors is the permanent authority and management decision-making body of the Company, which is subject to the supervision of the Supervisory Committee and all the shareholders, and is responsible for and report to the Shareholders' Meeting. Through improving the Company's law-based governance, authorization and delegation, compliance and internal control, risk management and control, and internal supervision and monitoring system, the Board gives full play to the responsibilities of determining strategies, making decisions and preventing risks.

As needed, under the Board of Directors there shall be such special committees as an Audit Committee, a Nomination Committee, a Remuneration Committee, a Development and Planning Committee, and an ESG Committee. The specific composition and powers of the aforesaid special committees, as well as the remuneration and assessment mechanism for directors, supervisors and senior management, are detailed in the Detailed Implementation Rules for the Special Committees under the Board of Directors of Aluminum Corporation of China Limited and other relevant systems formulated by the Company.

Article 94. The Board of Directors shall be composed of 9 directors. The outside directors (herein meaning those directors other than executive directors, the same hereinafter) shall represent not less than 50 percent of the members of the Board of Directors, and independent directors (herein meaning those directors who do not hold positions other than directorships in the Company and do not have any direct or indirect interests with the Company, its major shareholders or de facto controllers, or any other relationship that may affect their independent and objective judgment, and who are recognized as independent directors by the stock exchange where the Company is listed, the same hereinafter) shall be at least 3 and account for one-third or more of the members of the Board of Directors, and at least one accounting professional shall be included.

The Board of Directors shall include one chairman and one vice chairman (if needed).

Among the special committees under the Board of Directors, the Audit Committee shall be composed entirely of independent directors, of whom at least one shall be a financial or accounting professional, and the convener shall be a financial or accounting professional among the independent directors; the Remuneration Committee and the Nomination Committee shall consist of a majority of independent directors, and the conveners shall be an independent director.

Article 95. The directors of the Company shall be natural persons. Directors need not hold shares of the Company.

Article 96. Directors shall be elected by the Shareholders' Meeting and serve terms of three years (from the date of being elected to the date that the new Board of Directors is elected by the Shareholders' Meeting). At the expiration of their terms, directors may continue to serve as such if reelected, but independent directors may not serve more than six years in succession.

The list of candidates for directors shall be submitted as a motion to the Shareholders' Meeting. Other candidates for directors except for independent directors shall be nominated by the Board of Directors, the Supervisory Committee and a shareholder alone or shareholders together holding more than 1 percent of the Company's shares, and shall be elected by the Shareholders' Meeting of the Company.

A written notice of the intention to nominate a candidate for election as a Director and a notice by such candidate of his/her willingness to be elected, as well as basic information on such candidate, shall be given to the Company within a reasonable time before the date of the Shareholders' Meeting to enable the Company to deliver or provide the relevant notices and materials to the shareholders at least 10 trading days before the date of the Shareholders' Meeting.

The directors shall have sufficient time and the necessary knowledge and ability to perform their duties. The Company must provide necessary working conditions and information to outside directors for performing their duties. Among them, the independent directors may directly report to the Shareholders' Meeting, the State Council authorities in charge of securities and other relevant departments.

Article 97.

The procedure prior to electing the Company's non-independent directors shall be as follows:

- (1) the consent of the nominee shall be obtained before the nominator nominates him or her for the position of non-independent director; the nominator(s) shall be fully aware of basic information of the nominee, including but not limited to his or her educational background, work experience and part-time jobs; whether he or she has any connected relationship with any of the Company's directors, supervisors, senior management, de facto controllers or Shareholders holding more than 5% of the Company's shares; and whether he or she has any types of situations which make him or her inappropriate to serve as a director of the Company; and details of the Company's shares held by his or her. The Company shall disclose the foregoing information of the nominee in detail.
- (2) in case the candidates for non-independent directors are nominated before the convening of the board meeting, if there are relevant provisions in the applicable laws, administrative regulations and rules and/or the relevant listing rules, the written materials about the nominees described in item (1) of this Article shall be announced together with the resolution of the Board of Directors in accordance with such provisions.

- (3) if a shareholder alone or shareholders together holding more than 1 percent of the shares in the Company put(s) forth an extempore motion for the election of an independent non-executive director, the written notice of the intention to nominate a candidate for the position of independent non-executive director and of the nominee indicating his or her willingness to accept the nomination as well as relevant written materials on the nominee and his or her commitment as mentioned above in item (1) shall be delivered to the Company within a reasonable time before the date of the Shareholders' Meeting to enable the Company to deliver or provide the relevant notice and information to the shareholders 10 trading days before the date of the Shareholders' Meeting.
- (4) the candidates for directors shall answer the shareholders' questions at the Shareholders' Meeting discussing his/her election and appointment matters.
- (5) if a non-independent director is elected at the Shareholders' Meeting of the Company, the cumulative voting system shall be adopted, and the votes of the minority shareholders shall be separately counted and disclosed.
- (6) after being elected by the Shareholders' Meeting of the Company, a candidate for director shall, within one month after the election, sign the Statement and Undertaking of Directors, which shall be witnessed by a lawyer and filed with the stock exchange and the Board of Directors of the Company. Directors shall warrant that the matters declared in the Statement and Undertaking of Directors are true, accurate and complete, and that there are no false information, misleading statements or material omissions.

Article 98.

In the case where the Company's sole shareholder and persons acting in concert interest hold 30% or above of the total shares of the Company, the cumulative voting system may be implemented for the election of directors and supervisors at a Shareholders' Meeting, namely when more than two directors or supervisors shall be elected at the Shareholders' Meeting, each share held by the shareholder who participates in the voting carries a number of voting rights equivalent to the number of directors or supervisors to be elected, and a shareholder may cluster or disperse his or her voting rights.

Article 99.

The Chairman of the Board and the Vice Chairman of the Board shall be elected and removed by more than half of all the directors. The Chairman of the Board and the Vice Chairman of the Board shall serve terms of three years and may serve consecutive terms if reelected.

Article 100.

The Board of Directors shall be accountable to the Shareholders' Meeting and exercise the following functions and powers:

- (1) to convene Shareholders' Meetings and to report on its work to the Shareholders' Meeting;
- (2) to implement the resolutions of the Shareholders' Meeting;
- (3) to decide on the business plans and investment plans of the Company;
- (4) to determine the annual financial budgets plans and final accounts plans of the Company;
- (5) to determine the Company's annual financing plan;
- (6) to formulate the profit distribution plans and plans for making up losses of the Company;
- (7) to formulate plans for the Company's debt and financial policies, the increase or reduction of the registered capital of the Company and plans for the issuance of corporate bonds or other securities;
- (8) to draft plans for major acquisitions or disposals of the Company, purchase of shares of the Company, or the merger, division, split or dissolution of the Company;
- (9) to make decision on the security not subject to the approval of the Shareholders' Meeting, in accordance with the laws, the administrative regulations and rules, as well as these Articles of Association;
- (10) to review and approve the Company's annual social responsibility and environmental, social and governance report (Environmental, Social and Governance Report under the Rules Governing the Listing of Securities on The Stock Exchange of Hong Kong Limited, hereinafter the "ESG Report"); to decide on the Company's major environmental, social and governance matters within the scope of authorization of the Shareholders' Meeting;
- (11) to promote the rule of law and compliance management of the Company, consider and approve the annual work report on the rule of law construction and compliance management of the Company, review the Company's compliance system construction plan, and study and decide on major matters of compliance management;

- (12) to decide on such matters as the Company's investments in third parties, purchase and sales of assets, asset mortgages, entrustment of financial services, connected transactions, external donations, to the extent authorized by the Shareholders' Meeting;
- (13) to decide on the establishment of the Company's internal management organization;
- (14) to appoint or dismiss the Company's General Manager and secretary to the Board of Directors; to appoint or dismiss Senior Deputy General Manager, Deputy General Manager, chief financial officer and General Counsel of the Company based on the recommendations of the General Manager; to decide on the remuneration, rewards and punishments of senior management, and to implement contractual management in accordance with the labour contract;
- (15) to decide on the establishment of the Company's branches;
- (16) to formulate amendments to these Articles of Association;
- (17) to formulate the basic management systems of the Company;
- (18) to formulate equity incentive plans, employee stock ownership plans or other share-based compensation (such as allotment or share options) granted to employees;
- (19) to make decision on the Company's other major affairs and administrative affairs, and to sign other important agreements, except for the matters to be considered at the Shareholders' Meeting in accordance with the provisions of the Company Law and these Articles of Association;
- (20) to make decision on the matters in relation to buyback of shares of the Company under the circumstances set forth in items (5) and (6) of the Article 30;
- (21) to decide to issue shares not exceeding 50% of the issued shares within three years with the authorization of the Shareholders' Meeting. However, the capital contribution in the form of non-monetary property shall be resolved by the Shareholders' Meeting;
- (22) other functions and powers provided for in these Articles of Association or granted by the Shareholders' Meeting.

Resolutions by the Board of Directors on the matters referred to in the preceding paragraph shall be passed by the affirmative vote of a majority vote of all of the directors with the exception of resolutions on the matters referred to in items (7), (8), (9), (16), (18), (20) and (21), which shall require the affirmative vote of at least two-thirds of all of the directors for adoption.

If a director has a connected relationship with an enterprise or individual involved in a matter on which a resolution is to be made at a meeting of the Board of Directors, such director shall promptly report in writing to the Board of Directors. A director who has a connected relationship may not exercise his or her right to vote regarding such resolution, nor may he or she exercise the voting right of another director as such director's proxy thereon. Under circumstance set forth above, such a Board meeting may be held only if more than one half of the directors without a connected relationship are present, and the resolutions made at such a Board meeting shall require adoption by more than one half of the directors without a connected relationship. As for the aforementioned items, which shall require the affirmative vote of at least two-thirds of all of the directors for adoption, and shall require adoption by at least two-thirds of the directors without a connected relationship. If the Board meeting is attended by less than three directors without a connected relationship, the matter shall be submitted to the Shareholders' Meeting for consideration.

A resolution by the Board of Directors on a connected transaction shall enter into effect only once the independent directors have signed the same.

The Company shall formulate the rules for chief legal adviser, under which the chief legal adviser shall present and give legal opinions at the meeting of the Board of Directors whenever legal issue is involved in proposals for consideration and approval thereat.

Article 101. Before making decision on significant matters of the Company, the Board of Directors shall seek advice of the Party Committee.

Article 102. With the authorization made by the Board of Directors, the Chairman of the Board may exercise part of functions and powers of the Board when the Board is not in session. The content of the authorization made by the Board of Directors shall be clear and specific.

Article 103.   - (3) The notice shall be written in Chinese, if necessary, the English version can be attached, including the agenda for the meeting. Any director may waive the right of receiving the notice of board meeting.

Article 108. Materials for a meeting of the Board of Directors shall be sent to all directors of the Company for review at least 7 days (in the case of a regular meeting) or 3 days (in the case of an extraordinary meeting) before the meeting by hand, facsimile, mail, or e-mail. The directors may require additional materials with respect thereto. If at least one-quarter of the directors or at least two and more independent directors believe that the motion before the Board of Directors is unclear or unspecific, the meeting materials are insufficient or other such reason, they may propose in writing that the holding of the meeting of the Board of Directors or discussion of the motion in question be postponed to a later time. In such circumstances the Board of Directors shall accept the proposal.

Notice of a meeting shall be deemed to have been given to any director who attends the meeting without protest against, before or at its commencement, any lack of notice.

Any regular or extraordinary meeting of the Board of Directors may be held by way of telephone conference or similar communication equipment so long as all directors participating in the meeting can clearly hear and communicate with each other. All such directors shall be deemed to be present in person at the meeting.

Article 109. Meetings of the Board of Directors may be held only if the majority of the directors (including any alternate director appointed pursuant to Article 110 of the Articles of Association) attend. Each director shall be entitled to one vote. Resolutions of the Board of Directors must be adopted by the affirmative vote of the majority of all the directors.

Article 110.

Meetings of the Board of Directors shall be attended by the directors in person. If a director is unable to attend a meeting for any reason, he or she shall appoint another director in writing to attend the meeting on his or her behalf. Such instrument of appointment shall specify the names of the proxy, the matters, voting intention and the scope of authorization and the term of validity.

If a director fails to personally attend a meeting of the Board of Directors and to appoint another director to attend the meetings on his or her behalf on two consecutive occasions, he or she shall be deemed unable to perform his or her duties and the Board of Directors shall, within 30 days from the date of occurrence of such fact, propose to convene a Shareholders' Meeting to remove such director from his or her office.

The director attending the meeting on behalf of the absent director shall exercise the director's right to the extent authorized. If a director fails to attend a meeting of the Board of Directors and has not appointed a proxy to attend the meeting on his or her behalf, he or she shall be deemed to have waived his or her right to vote at such meeting.

The reasonable expenses incurred by the directors who attend meetings of the board shall be borne by the Company. These expenses include the traffic expenses covering the distance between the place where a director is located and the place where a meeting is held (in the event that these two places are not the same), the fees of room and board during the term of the meeting, the rent of the place of the meeting and the local traffic expenses.

Article 111.

The Board of Directors may agree to accept a written motion instead of convening the meeting of the Board of Directors. The draft of the motion shall be served in person, by mail, telegram and fax to each director. In case that the Board of Directors has distributed the motion to all directors, the number of directors who sign on the motion reaches the quorum required by laws and the motion has been submitted to the Secretary of the Board by the abovementioned ways, the resolution shall become the resolution adopted by the Board of Directors, without convening the meeting of the Board of Directors.

Article 112.

The Board of Directors shall keep minutes of the meeting of the Board of Directors and its decisions on the matters examined without the convening of a meeting in Chinese. The directors attending the meeting shall have the right to make descriptive records of their speeches at the meeting. The opinions of the independent directors shall be clearly listed in the resolutions of the board of directors. The minute of each meeting of the Board of Directors shall be provided to all directors for review as soon as possible. Any director who wants to make amendment of supplement to the minute shall report the amendment to the Chairman of the Board in written form within one week upon the receipt of the minute. The directors and recorder attending the meeting shall sign on the finalized minute of the meeting. The minutes of meetings of the Board of Directors shall be kept at the Company's domicile and sent to each director in full copies as soon as possible. The minutes of meetings shall be kept for at least 10 years.

The directors shall be liable for the resolutions of the Board of Directors. If a resolution of the Board of Directors is in violation of laws, administrative regulations or these Articles of Association, thereby causing a material loss to the Company, the directors who took part in the resolution shall be liable to the Company for damages. If a director is proved to have expressed his or her opposition to and vote against such resolution when it was put to the vote, and such opposition is recorded in the minutes of the meeting, such director may be exempted from such liability.

Article 113.

Any written resolution not formed and signed by directors in line with the statutory procedures shall not have the legal effect of the resolution of the Board, even if every director has expressed his or her opinion in different ways.

Where a resolution of the Board of Directors is in violation of laws, administrative regulations and rules, the Company's Articles of Association or the resolution of the Shareholders' Meeting, thereby causing serious losses to the Company, the directors who cast an affirmative vote shall be directly liable to the Company for damages. However, where a director can prove that he or she expressed his or her opposition to such resolution when it was put to be voted, and that such opposition was recorded in the minutes of the meeting, the director may be relieved from such liability; where a director abstains from voting, or is absent and does not appoint others to attend, the director may not be relieved from such liability; where a director has expressed his opposition to such resolution but does not cast a negative vote, the director also may not be relieved from such liability.

Article 114. Subject to relevant laws and administrative regulations, the Shareholders' Meeting may remove any director by an ordinary resolution (without prejudice to any claim for damages that such director may have under any contract) before the end of his or her term of office, with effective from the date of such resolution made.

Article 115. Directors may tender their resignations before the expiration of their terms of office. To resign, a director shall submit a written resignation to the Board of Directors. The independent director provide information on any circumstances related to his or her resignation or any circumstances to which he or she believes the attention of the Company and its creditors must be drawn.

When a director resigns, his or her resignation shall be effective upon his or her written resignation being received by the Company. However, the director shall continue to perform his or her duties under the following circumstances:

- (1) If the resignation of a director causes the number of occupied seats on the Board of Directors to fall below the statutory minimum, such director shall continue to perform his or her duties. The Board of Directors shall convene an extraordinary Shareholders' Meeting as soon as possible to elect a director to fill the vacancy left by the resignation of the director. Until the Shareholders' Meeting has passed a resolution on electing a director, the powers of the resigning director and the remaining directors shall be subject to reasonable restrictions.
- (2) If the resignation of an independent director causes the number of independent directors or the number of occupied seats on the Board of Directors to fall below the statutory minimum, the incumbent director shall continue to perform his or her duties as an independent director in accordance with laws, administrative regulations and these Articles of Association until the incoming director assumes his or her position. The Board of Directors shall convene a Shareholders' Meeting within two months to re-elect the independent directors; if the Board of Directors fails to convene a Shareholders' Meeting, the independent directors may not perform their duties.

CHAPTER 12 Independent Directors

Article 116. The independent directors have the obligation to act in good faith and due diligence towards the Company and all of its shareholders, and shall perform their duties conscientiously in accordance with the requirements of relevant laws, regulations, rules, normative documents and the Articles of Association, play a role in decision-making, supervision, check and balance, and professional consultation in the Board of Directors, so as to safeguard the overall interests of the Company and protect the legitimate interests of the minority shareholders.

The independent director shall perform his or her duties and responsibilities independently, without interference from the major shareholder(s) or the actual controller of the Company, or other entities or individuals that have a material interest with the Company and its major shareholder(s) or the actual controller.

Article 117. The candidates for the Company's independent director shall be nominated by the Company's Board of Directors, Supervisory Committee and shareholders who alone or together hold at least 1 percent of the outstanding issued shares of the Company and shall be decided through election by the Shareholders' Meeting. An investor protection agency established by law may publicly request the shareholders to entrust it to exercise their rights to nominate the independent directors on their behalf.

- (1) The consent of the nominee shall be obtained before the nominator nominates him or her for the position of independent director; the nominator(s) shall be fully aware of such details of the nominee as his or her occupation, educational background, title, career details, all of his or her concurrent positions, whether he or she has a major breach of trust and other records of bad behaviors, etc., and comment on the fulfilment of the independence and other conditions for being an independent director. Candidates shall make a public statement on their fulfilment of the independence and other conditions for being an independent director. The candidate shall make a written commitment to the Company, agree to accept the nomination, promise that the publicly disclosed information about candidates is true and complete, and to guarantee that they will earnestly perform their duties if being selected.
- (2) If the candidate for the independent director is nominated before the board meeting is convened, if otherwise provided in accordance with provisions in the applicable laws and regulations and/or the listing rules or other securities laws and regulations, the written materials of the nominee described in item (1) of this Article shall be announced together with the resolution of the Board of Directors in accordance with such provisions.

- (3) If a shareholder alone or shareholders together holding at least 1 percent of the total issued shares in the Company or the Supervisory Committee put(s) forth an extempore motion for the election of an independent director, the written notice of the intention to nominate a candidate for the position of independent director and of the nominee indicating his or her willingness to accept the nomination as well as relevant written materials and commitment on the nominee as mentioned in above in item (1) of this Article shall be delivered to the Company within a reasonable period before the date of the Shareholders' Meeting, so as to enable the Company to send or provide the relevant notice and materials to the shareholders not less than 10 trading days before the date of the Shareholders' Meeting.
- (4) Prior to the holding of a Shareholders' Meeting at which an independent director is to be elected, if otherwise provided in the applicable laws and regulations and/or relevant listing rules, the Company shall submit the relevant materials on all the nominees to the stock exchange on which the Company's shares are listed. If the Board of Directors of the Company has objections concerning the relevant details of a nominee, the Company shall additionally submit the written opinion of the Board of Directors. The nominees against whom the stock exchange has objections shall not be proposed to the Shareholders' Meeting for election.
- (5) The cumulative voting system shall be adopted for the election of independent directors at the Shareholders' Meeting, and the votes casted by the minority shareholders shall be counted and disclosed separately. Where conditions allow, the Company may elect independent directors through competitive election.
- (6) After being elected by the Shareholders' Meeting of the Company, a candidate for independent director shall, within one month after the election, sign the Statement and Undertaking of Directors, which shall be witnessed by a lawyer and filed with the stock exchange and the Board of Directors of the Company. independent directors shall warrant that the matters declared in the Statement and Undertaking of Directors are true, accurate and complete, and that there are no false information, misleading statements or material omissions.

- (7) persons who may not serve as a director, supervisor, General Manager or other senior management staff of the Company by virtue of laws and regulations of the State and the Listing Rules.

As for the current directors, under the above circumstance set forth above, the Board of Directors shall immediately stop relevant directors from performing their duties since the date of knowing the situation occurred, and advice the Shareholders' Meeting to replace such directors. As for the General Manager, the Board of Directors shall immediately stop relevant General Manager from performing his or her duties since the date of knowing the situation occurred, and convene the meeting of the Board of Directors to dismiss such General Manager. As for the current supervisors, under the above circumstance set forth, the Board of Directors shall immediately stop relevant supervisors from performing their duties since the date of knowing the situation occurred, and advice the Shareholders' Meeting or the employee representative congress to replace such supervisors.

Article 152. No director may act on behalf of the Company or the Board of Directors in his or her own name unless these Articles of Association specify that he or she may do so or he or she is lawfully authorized to do so by the Board of Directors. A director shall declare his or her position and capacity in advance if, when such director is acting in his or her private capacity, a third party would reasonably assume him or her to be acting on behalf of the Company or the Board of Directors.

Article 153. The validity of an act of a director, the General Manager or other senior management staff of the Company on behalf of the Company shall not, vis-à-vis a bona fide third party, be affected by any non-compliance in his or her holding of such office, election or qualification.

Article 154. In addition to obligations imposed by laws, the administrative rules and regulations as well as the listing rules of the stock exchanges on which shares of the Company are listed, the Company's directors, supervisors, General Manager and other senior management staff shall owe each shareholder the following obligations in the exercise of the functions and powers granted to them by the Company:

- (1) not to cause the Company to exceed the scope of business stipulated in its business license;
- (2) to act honestly in the best interest of the Company;
- (3) not to deprive the Company of its property in any way, including (but not limited to) any opportunities that are advantageous to the Company;
- (4) not to deprive shareholders of their individual rights and interests, including (but not limited to) rights to distributions and voting rights, unless pursuant to a restructuring of the Company submitted to and adopted by the Shareholders' Meeting in accordance with these Articles of Association of the Company;
- (5) the obligations required by the laws of the place where Company shares are listed and relevant provisions of the stock exchange.

Article 155. The Company's directors, supervisors, General Manager and other senior management staff shall have a fiduciary obligation to the Company, take measures to avoid any conflict of interest with the Company and not utilize their positions to seek undue benefits.

The Company's directors, supervisors, General Manager and other senior management staff shall have an obligation of diligence to the Company and shall exercise the reasonable care normally expected of a manager in the best interests of the Company in the performance of their duties.

The Company's directors, supervisors, General Manager and other senior management staff shall have an obligation, in the exercise of their rights or discharge of their obligations, to perform their acts with the care, diligence and skill that a reasonably prudent person should exercise in comparable circumstances, including but not limited to the relevant Professional Moralities and Code of Conduct for employees developed by the Company.

Article 156. The Company's directors, supervisors, General Manager and other senior management staff must, in the performance of their duties and responsibilities, abide by the fiduciary principle and shall not place themselves in a position where their personal interests and their duties may conflict. This principle shall include but not be limited to the fulfillment of the following obligations:

- (1) to act honestly in the best interest of the Company;
- (2) to exercise powers within the scope of their functions and powers and not to exceed such powers;
- (3) to personally exercise the discretion vested in him or her and not allow himself or herself to be manipulated by another person and, unless permitted by laws, administrative regulations or with the informed consent of the Shareholders' Meeting, not to delegate the exercise of his or her discretion;
- (4) to accord equal treatment to shareholders of the same class and fair treatment to shareholders of different classes;

- (5) when entering into a contract or transaction with the Company directly or indirectly, he or she shall report the matters relating to the entering of the contract or transaction to the Board of Directors or the Shareholders' Meeting, and the contract or transaction shall be subject to the approval of the Board of Directors or the Shareholders' Meeting in accordance with the provisions of these Articles of Association. The provisions of the preceding paragraph shall apply to the entering of contracts or transactions with the Company by close family members of the directors, supervisors and senior management staffs, enterprises directly or indirectly controlled by the directors, supervisors and senior management staffs or their close family members, and associates who have other affiliations with the directors, supervisors and senior management staffs;
- (6) not to use Company property for his or her own benefit in any way;
- (7) not to use his or her functions and powers as a means to accept bribes or other forms of illegal income, and not to illegally appropriate Company property in any way, including (but not limited to) any opportunities that are advantageous to the Company;
- (8) not to accept commissions in connection with Company transactions;
- (9) to abide by these Articles of Association, to perform his or her duties faithfully, to protect the interests of the Company, and not to use his or her position, functions and powers in the Company to seek personal gain;
- (10) not to seek business opportunities belonging to the Company for themselves or others by utilizing their positions, except for any of the following circumstances:
  - i. after reporting to the Board of Directors or the Shareholders' Meeting and passing the resolution at the Board meeting or the Shareholders' Meeting in accordance with the provisions of these Articles of Association;
  - ii. where the Company cannot take such business opportunity in accordance with the provisions of laws, administrative regulations or these Articles of Association.

- (11) not to self-operate or operate for others the same category of business as that of the Company before reporting to the Board of Directors or the Shareholders' Meeting and passing the resolution at the Board meeting or the Shareholders' Meeting in accordance with the provisions of these Articles of Association;
- (12) not to divert Company funds or lend Company funds to others, not to deposit Company funds in accounts opened in his or her own or in another name; not to lend Company funds to others, and not to use Company property as security for the debts of other individuals without the consent of the Shareholders' Meeting or Board of Directors;
- (13) without the informed consent of the Shareholders' Meeting, not to disclose confidential information relating to the Company that was acquired by him or her during his or her tenure; and not to use such information except in the furtherance of the interests of the Company; however, such information may be disclosed to a court or other competent government authorities if:
  - i. provided for by laws;
  - ii. required in the public interest;
  - iii. required in the personal interest of such director, supervisor, General Manager or other senior management staff of the Company.

Income derived by the directors, General Manager and other senior management staff in breach of this Article shall belong to the Company; and they shall be held liable for damages if, as a result of violating a regulation, they cause the Company to sustain a loss.

Article 157. All directors, supervisors and the secretary to the board of directors shall attend the Shareholders' Meeting of the Company, and the General Manager and other senior management shall be present at the meeting. The directors, supervisors, General Manager and senior management staff shall provide explanations in response to the queries and suggestions made by shareholders at a Shareholders' Meeting.

The Supervisory Committee may require directors and senior management staff to submit reports on the performance of their duties.

The directors, General Manager and senior management staff shall provide true information and data to the Supervisory Committee and not interfering with the Supervisory Committee or supervisors in the exercise of their functions and powers.

Article 158. A director, a supervisor, the General Manager or other senior management staff of the Company may not incite the following persons or organizations (“connected persons”) to do what such director, supervisor, General Manager or other senior management staff may not do:

- (1) the spouse or a minor child of such director, supervisor, General Manager or other senior management staff of the Company;
- (2) a trustee of such director, supervisor, General Manager or other senior management staff of the Company or of any person referred to in item (1) hereof;
- (3) a partner of such director, supervisor, General Manager or other senior management staff of the Company or of any person referred to in items (1) and (2) hereof;
- (4) a company over which such director, supervisor, General Manager or other senior management staff of the Company, alone or jointly with any person referred to in items (1), (2) and (3) hereof or any other director, supervisor, General Manager or other senior management staff of the Company, has de facto control;
- (5) a director, a supervisor, the General Manager or other senior management staff of a company being controlled as referred to in item (4) hereof.

- Article 159. If a director, a supervisor, the General Manager and other senior officer tender his or her resignations or his or her term of office expires, the fiduciary obligation of the Company's directors, supervisors, General Manager and other senior management staff do not necessarily cease with the termination of their tenure. A director, the supervisor, the General Manager and other senior officer's obligation to maintain the confidentiality of the Company's trade secrets shall survive the end of his or her term, until such secrets enter the public domain. The term of survival of his or her other obligations shall be decided upon according to the principle of fairness, the time elapsed between the director's departure from office and the occurrence of the event, and the circumstances and conditions of the termination of his or her relationship with the Company.
- Article 160. A director, a supervisor, the General Manager or other senior officer who causes the Company to sustain a loss as a result of a violation of a law, administrative regulations and rules, department rules or a breach of these Articles of Association by him or her during the performance of his or her Company duties shall be liable for damages.
- A director, a supervisor, the General Manager or other senior officer who causes the Company to sustain a loss due to his or her unauthorized departure from office prior to the end of his or her term shall be liable for damages.
- Article 161. A director, a supervisor, the General Manager or other senior management staff of the Company may, by informed decision of the Shareholders' Meeting, be relieved from liability for a specific breach of his or her obligations, except in circumstances as specified in Article 48 of the Articles of Association.
- Article 162. If a director, a supervisor, the General Manager or other senior management staff of the Company is, directly or indirectly, materially interested in a contract, transaction or arrangement concluded or planned by the Company (excluding his or her engagement contract with the Company), he or she shall disclose the nature and extent of his or her interest to the Board of Directors at the earliest opportunity, whether or not the matter is normally subject to the approval of the Board of Directors.

A director may not vote on any contract, transaction or arrangement in which he or she or any close associate connected to him or her (as defined in the applicable securities listing rules amended from time to time) has a material interest and which is to be approved by the Board of Directors or any other proposals related thereto. Additionally, he or she may not count in the quorum for the meeting.

Unless the interested director, supervisor, General Manager or other senior management staff of the Company has disclosed such interest to the Board of Directors as required under the first paragraph hereof and the matter has been approved by the Board of Directors at a meeting in which he or she was not counted in the quorum and had refrained from voting, the Company shall have the right to void the contract, transaction or arrangement, unless the other party is a bona fide party acting without knowledge of the breach of obligation by the director, supervisor, General Manager or other senior management staff concerned.

A director, a supervisor, the General Manager or other senior management staff of the Company shall be deemed to be interested in any contract, transaction or arrangement in which a connected person of that director, supervisor, General Manager or other senior management staff is interested.

Article 163. If a director, a supervisor, the General Manager or other senior management staff of the Company gives a written notice to the Board of Directors before the conclusion of the contract, transaction or arrangement is first considered by the Company stating that, by reason of the contents of the notice, he or her is interested in the contract, transaction or arrangement that may subsequently be made by the Company, such director, supervisor, General Manager or other senior management staff of the Company shall be deemed for the purposes of the preceding Articles of this Chapter to have declared his interest, to the extent stated in the notice.

Article 164. The Company may not in any manner pay tax on behalf of its directors, supervisors, General Manager or other senior management staff.

Article 165. The Company may not directly or indirectly provide a loan to, or loan guarantees for, its directors, supervisors, General Manager and other senior management staff or those of its parent company, or provide loans to or loan guarantees for connected persons of the above-mentioned persons.

The provisions of the preceding paragraph shall not apply to the following circumstances:

- (1) the provision by the Company of a loan to or a loan guarantee for a subsidiary of the Company;

- (2) the provision by the Company of a loan, loan guarantee or other moneys to a director, a supervisor, the General Manager or other senior management staff of the Company under an engagement contract approved by the Shareholders' Meeting, so as to enable him to meet the expenses incurred for the purposes of the Company or for the performance of his or her Company duties;
- (3) the provision by the Company of a loan or a loan guarantee to a relevant director, a supervisor, the General Manager or other senior management staff of the Company or to a connected person thereof on normal commercial terms, if the ordinary scope of business of the Company includes the lending of money or the provision of loan guarantees.

Article 166. A loan provided by the Company in breach of the preceding Article shall be immediately repaid to the Company by the recipient of the loan, regardless of the terms of the loan.

Article 167. A loan guarantee provided by the Company in breach of the first paragraph of Article 165 shall be unenforceable against the Company, unless:

- (1) the loan was provided to a connected person of a director, a supervisor, the General Manager or other senior management staff of the Company or of its parent company, and at the time the loan was advanced the lender did not know the relevant circumstances;
- (2) the collateral provided by the Company has been lawfully sold by the lender to a bona fide purchaser.

Article 168. For the purposes of the preceding Articles of this Chapter, the term "guarantee" shall include an act whereby the guarantor assumes liability or provides property to guarantee or secure the performance of obligations by the obligor.

Article 169. Following the approval of the Shareholders' Meeting, the Company may purchase liability insurances for the directors, supervisors, General Manager and other senior management staff, unless the liability is caused by the violation of the laws, administrative regulations and rules, as well as these articles of association by the Company's directors, supervisors, General Manager or other senior management staff.

After the Company has taken out or renewed liability insurance, the Board of Directors shall report to the Shareholders' Meeting on the amount and scope of coverage and insurance premium rate of the liability insurance.

Article 170.

If a director, a supervisor, the General Manager or other senior management staff of the Company breaches his or her obligations to the Company, the Company shall, in addition to any rights and remedies provided by laws or administrative rules and regulations, have the right to:

- (1) require the relevant director, supervisor, General Manager or other senior management staff to compensate for the losses sustained by the Company as a consequence of his or her dereliction of duty;
- (2) rescind any contract or transaction concluded by the Company with the relevant director, supervisor, General Manager or other senior management staff and contracts or transactions with a third party (where such third party is well aware or should know that the director, supervisor, General Manager or other senior management staff representing the Company was in breach of his or her obligations to the Company);
- (3) require the relevant director, supervisor, General Manager or other senior management staff to surrender the gains derived from the breach of his or her obligations;
- (4) recover any moneys received by the relevant director, supervisor, General Manager or other senior management staff that should have been received by the Company, including (but not limited to) commissions;
- (5) require the relevant director, supervisor, General Manager or other senior management staff to return the interest earned or possibly earned on the moneys that should have been given to the Company.

Article 171.

The Company shall conclude written contracts with each director and supervisor of the Company concerning his or her remuneration. Such contracts shall be approved by the Shareholders' Meeting before they are entered into. The aforementioned remuneration shall include:

- (1) remuneration in respect of his or her service as a director, supervisor or senior management staff of the Company;
- (2) remuneration in respect of his service as a director, supervisor or senior management staff of a subsidiary of the Company;
- (3) remuneration for other services provided toward the management of the Company or a subsidiary thereof;
- (4) the payment by way of compensation for his or her loss of office or retirement to the aforementioned directors and supervisors in respect of redundancy or retirement.

A director or supervisor may not sue the Company for benefits due to him or her on the basis of the aforementioned matters, except under a contract as mentioned above.

Article 172. The Company shall specify in the contract concluded with a director or supervisor of the Company concerning his or her remuneration that in the event of a takeover of the Company, a director or supervisor of the Company shall, subject to prior approval of the Shareholders' Meeting, have the right to receive the compensation or other moneys obtainable for loss of office or retirement. For the purposes of the preceding paragraph, the term "a takeover of the Company" shall mean either of the following:

- (1) anyone making a purchase offer to all of the shareholders;
- (2) anyone making a purchase offer with a view to the offeror becoming a controlling shareholder as defined in the Article 49 of these Articles of Association.

If the relevant directors or supervisors have failed to comply with this Article, any sums received by themselves shall belong to those persons that have sold their shares as a result of their acceptance of the aforementioned offer, and the expenses incurred in the pro rata distribution of such sums shall be borne by the relevant directors or supervisors and may not be paid out of such sums.

CHAPTER 17 Financial and Accounting Systems, Distribution of Profits, Auditing and General Counsel System

Article 173. The Company shall formulate its own financial and accounting systems in accordance with laws, administrative regulations and relevant provisions formulated by the State Council's department in charge of finance.

Article 174. The Company shall adopt the Gregorian calendar year as its fiscal year, which shall commence on January 1 and end on December 31 of the same Gregorian calendar year.

The Company shall adopt the Renminbi as its bookkeeping base currency and its account books shall be kept in Chinese.

The Company shall prepare financial reports at the end of each fiscal year. Such reports shall be audited by an accounting firm in accordance with the laws.

- Article 175. The Board of Directors of the Company shall place before the shareholders at each annual Shareholders' Meeting such financial reports as relevant laws, administrative regulations and normative documents promulgated by the local government and the authorities-in-charge require the Company to prepare. Such reports shall be subject to audit.
- Article 176. The financial reports of the Company shall be made available for inspection by shareholders 20 days prior to an annual Shareholders' Meeting. Each shareholder of the Company shall have the right to obtain a copy of the financial reports referred to in this Chapter.
- Subject to the laws, regulations and listing rules of the place where Company's shares are listed, the aforementioned financial reports may be provided to shareholders by means as specified in Article 221 of these Articles of Association.
- Article 177. The financial statements of the Company shall be prepared not only in accordance with PRC accounting standards and regulations but also in accordance with international accounting standards or the accounting standards of the place outside the PRC where shares of the Company are listed. If there are material differences in the financial statements prepared in accordance with these two sets of accounting standards, such differences shall be stated in the notes to such financial statements. For purposes of the Company's distribution of after-tax profits of a given fiscal year, the lesser of the amounts of after-tax profits shown in the aforementioned two kinds of financial statements shall govern.
- Article 178. The Company shall publish four financial reports every fiscal year, namely an Q1 financial report within 30 days after the end of the first three months of the fiscal year, an interim financial report within 60 days after the end of the first six months of the fiscal year, an Q3 financial report within 30 days after the end of the first nine months of the fiscal year and an annual financial report within 120 days after the end of the fiscal year.
- Article 179. The Company's financial and accounting reports shall be prepared in accordance with relevant laws, administrative regulations and departmental rules.
- Article 180. The Company may not keep account books other than the statutory account books.

Article 181. The basic principles of profit distribution policy of the Company are as follows:

- (1) taking full account of return to investors and distributing dividend to shareholders per annum in proportion to the distributable dividend realized for the year concerned;
- (2) maintaining the continuity and stability of the Company's dividend distribution policy, while at the same time take care of the interest of the Company in the long term, the interest of the shareholders as a whole, as well as the sustainable development of the Company;
- (3) giving priority to dividend distribution in cash.

Article 182. When the Company distributes its after-tax profits for a given year, it shall allocate 10 percent of profits to its statutory common reserve. The Company shall no longer be required to make allocations to its statutory common reserve once the aggregate amount of such reserve reaches at least 50 percent of its registered capital.

If the Company's statutory common reserve is insufficient to make up losses from previous years, the Company shall use its profits from the current year to make up such losses before making the allocation to its statutory common reserve in accordance with the preceding paragraph.

After making the allocation from its after-tax profits to its statutory common reserve as well as statutory public welfare fund, the Company may, subject to a resolution of the Shareholders' Meeting, make an allocation from its after-tax profits to the discretionary common reserve.

After the Company has made up its losses and made allocations to its statutory common reserves, the remaining profits of the Company shall be distributed in proportion to the shareholdings of its shareholders. Shares of the Company that are held by the Company itself shall not participate in the distribution of profits.

Article 183. Before making up its losses and made allocations to the statutory common reserve, the Company shall not distribute dividends or distribute profits to shareholders. If, in violation of the preceding paragraph at the Shareholders' Meeting, the Company distributed profits to the shareholders before the Company has made up its losses and made an allocation to the statutory common reserve, any profits distributed in violation of the provisions shall be returned to the Company by shareholders. In case of losses caused to the Company, shareholders and responsible directors, supervisors and senior management staff shall be liable for compensation.

The Company's dividend does not bear any interest, unless the Company fails to distribute relevant dividends to the shareholders.

Article 184. The Company's common reserves (referring to the statutory reserve fund, any fund and capital fund) shall be used to make up the Company's losses, to expand the Company's production and operations or, through conversion into capital, to increase the Company's capital. To make up for the losses with common reserves, the Company shall first use discretionary reserve and statutory reserve; and may use capital reserve to make up for the remaining losses in accordance with relevant regulations.

If the Company remains in loss position after making up for the losses in accordance with the provisions of preceding paragraph, it may reduce the registered capital to make up for the losses. If the registered capital is reduced to make up for the losses, the Company shall not make any distribution to the shareholders; nor shall the shareholders be exempted from the obligation to make capital injection or payment for the shares.

Where the registered capital is reduced in accordance with the provisions of the preceding paragraph, the provisions of paragraph 2 of Article 29 of these Articles of Association shall not apply, but an announcement shall be published in a newspaper or on the National Enterprise Credit Information Publicity System within 30 days from the date of the resolution on reduction of registered capital made at the Shareholders' Meeting.

After reducing its registered capital in accordance with the provisions of the preceding two paragraphs, the Company shall not distribute profits until the accumulated amount of the statutory reserve and discretionary reserve reaches 50% of the Company's registered capital.

When funds in the statutory common reserve are converted into increase registered capital by the Company through the resolution at the Shareholders' Meeting, the new shares shall be issued according to the original proportion of shares held by the shareholders, or the par value of shares shall be increased. However, in case that the statutory common reserve are converted into increase registered capital, the remaining of the reserve shall not be less than 25 percent of the registered capital of the Company before the conversion.

Article 185.

Dividend distribution policies of the Company are to be specified as follows:

- (1) dividend shall be distributed in the following manner: the Company may distribute dividends in cash, in shares or in a combination of both cash and shares. Subject to conditions, interim profit distribution may be made by the Company.
- (2) specific circumstances for and proportions of cash dividend of the Company: save in exceptional circumstances, if the Company's profit for the year and its cumulative undistributed profit are positive, the Company may distribute dividend in cash and the profit to be distributed in cash per annum will not be less than 10 percent of the distributable profit realized for that year, or that the total profit to be distributed in cash in the past three years will not be less than 30 percent of the average annual distributable profit realized in the past three years.

The exceptional circumstances refer to the following:

- i. where the auditing firm issues a non-standard unqualified audit report on the financial report of the Company for the year; and
- ii. where the Company has major investment plan or significant cash expenditure (fund raising projects excepted).

(3) Conditions for distributing dividends in shares by the Company:

where the Company's business is in a sound condition, and the Board of Directors considers that the stock price of the Company does not reflect its share capital size and distributing dividend in shares will be favorable to all shareholders of the Company as a whole, provided that the above conditions of cash dividend are fully met, the Company may propose dividend distribution in shares.

(4) Upon occurrence of any illegal appropriation of the Company's funds by the shareholders, the Company shall deduct the cash bonus to be paid to such shareholders to make up for the funds appropriated by such shareholders.

Article 186. Procedures for considering the profit distribution plan of the Company:

(1) The profit distribution plan of the Company shall be drawn up by the management before being submitted to the Board of Directors and the supervisory committee of the Company for consideration. The Board of Directors shall thoroughly discuss the rationality of the profit distribution plan and form a specific resolution before submitting it to the shareholders' meeting for consideration. In considering the profit distribution plan, the Company shall make Internet voting accessible to the shareholders.

(2) Where the Company does not distribute cash dividend by reason of the exceptional circumstances in Article 185 above, the Board of Directors shall explain the specific reasons for not distributing cash dividends, the exact purpose for the retained profit and the estimated investment return, and upon the independent Directors having expressed their opinions thereon, submit such proposal to the shareholders' meeting for consideration, and disclose the same in the media designated by the Company.

Article 187. Implementation of the profit distribution plan of the Company: After the profit distribution plan has been resolved at a shareholders' meeting, the Board of Directors shall complete dividend (or share) distribution within two months after the holding of such meeting.

- Article 188. Alteration of the Company's profit distribution policy:
- In case of force majeure events such as war, natural disasters, or changes to the Company's external operational environment resulting in material impact on its production and operation, or relatively significant changes to the Company's operational position, the Company may adjust its profit distribution policy.
- The Board of Directors shall conduct specific discussion over adjustment to the Company's profit distribution policy, provide detailed reasons for such adjustment, form a written report to be considered by independent Directors, and then submit to the shareholders' meeting for approval by way of a special resolution. In considering alterations to the profit distribution policy, the Company shall make Internet voting accessible to the shareholders.
- Article 189. Dividends and other payments by the Company to holders of domestic investment shares shall be distributed and paid in Renminbi, whereas those to holders of overseas listed foreign investment shares shall be denominated and declared in Renminbi and paid in HK Dollars. The foreign currency for the cash dividends and other payments by the Company to holders of overseas listed foreign investment shares and other holders of foreign investment shares shall be handled in accordance with state regulations on foreign exchange control.
- Article 190. Unless otherwise provided in relevant laws and Administrative regulations, where cash dividends and other amounts are paid in HK Dollars, the average middle price of the relevant foreign exchange posted by the People's Bank of China for the Gregorian calendar week immediately preceding the date of declaration of the dividends or other payment shall be used as the exchange rate.
- Article 191. Subject to the paragraph 2, Article 51 and the item (22), paragraph 1, Article 100 of these Articles of Association, the Board of Directors may decide to distribute the interim dividend or special dividend.

- Article 192. When distributing dividends to shareholders, the Company shall withhold and turn over the tax payable on the dividend income of shareholders based on the amount distributed and in accordance with PRC tax laws.
- Article 193. The Company shall appoint receiving agents for holders of overseas listed foreign investment shares to collect on behalf of the relevant shareholders the dividends distributed and other moneys payable in respect of overseas listed foreign investment shares.
- The receiving agents appointed by the Company shall meet the requirements of the laws of the place, or the relevant regulations of the stock exchange, where shares are listed.
- Under the premise of obeying the laws of China, the Company has the right to forfeit the unclaimed dividends, subject to the expiry of the applicable relevant limitation period.
- Article 194. The Company shall implement an internal auditing system and appoint dedicated auditing personnel to carry out internal auditing and supervision of the Company's financial revenues and expenditures, and economic activities.
- Article 195. The Company's internal auditing system and the responsibilities of its auditing personnel shall be implemented after the approval thereof by the Board of Directors. The person in charge of auditing shall be accountable and report to the Board of Directors.
- Article 196. The Company has implemented the general counsel system, and has one General Counsel to play the role of General Counsel in legal review and control in operation and management, so as to promote the legal operation and compliance management of the Company. The General Counsel is a member of the senior management of the Company and is subject to the appointment or dismissal by the Board.

CHAPTER 18 Engagement of Accounting Firms

Article 197. The Company shall engage an independent accounting firm that complies with relevant provisions of PRC laws to audit the annual financial reports and review other financial reports of the Company, make verification of net assets and provide other consulting-related services.

With respect to selection and appointment of accounting firms, the Company shall adopt competitive negotiation, open bidding, invited bidding and other means that the competence of such accounting firm may be known well so as to ensure that the selection and appointment process is carried out fairly and impartially.

The Company shall specify the evaluation criteria for selection and appointment of an accounting firm, which shall at least include audit fees, qualifications, practice records, quality management standards, work plans, labors and other resources allocation, information security management, and level of risk tolerance. The Company shall evaluate the application documents of the proposed accounting firms, and record and maintain the evaluation opinions of the persons participating in the evaluation.

Article 198. The term of engagement of an accounting firm engaged by the Company is one year, which shall commence upon the adjournment of the annual Shareholders' Meeting of the Company and end upon the adjournment of the next annual Shareholders' Meeting. The accounting firm could be reappointed if the term is expired, but in principle, the continuous engagement of the same accounting firm shall not be more than 8 years. If the Company intends to continue engaging the same accounting firm for more than 8 years due to business needs, it shall comprehensively consider the quality of the accounting firm's previous audits, the shareholders' evaluation, regulatory opinions, etc., and may appropriately extend the term of engagement after performing corporate governance procedures and internal decision-making procedures, subject to a term of continuous engagement not exceeding 10 years.

Article 199. An accounting firm engaged by the Company shall have the following rights:

- (1) the right of access to the account books, records or vouchers of the Company and the right to require directors, the General Manager and other senior management staff of the Company to provide relevant information and explanations at any time;

- (2) the right to require the Company to take all reasonable measures to obtain from its subsidiaries the information and explanations necessary for the accounting firm to perform its duties;
- (3) the right to attend shareholders' meetings in a non-voting capacity, to receive notice of or other information concerning any meetings of or concerning which shareholders have a right to receive notice or other information, and to be heard at any shareholders' meetings on any matter which relates to it as the accounting firm of the Company.

Article 200. If the position of accounting firm becomes vacant, the Board of Directors may following the approval of the Audit Committee appoint an accounting firm to fill such vacancy before a Shareholders' Meeting is held. However, if there are other accounting firms holding the position of accounting firm of the Company while such vacancy persists, such accounting firms may continue to act.

Article 201. The Shareholders' Meeting may by ordinary resolution decide to dismiss any accounting firm prior to the expiration of its term of engagement, notwithstanding anything in the contract between the accounting firm and the Company, but without prejudice to such accounting firm's right, if any, to claim damages from the Company in respect of such dismissal.

Article 202. The remuneration or method of determining the remuneration of an accounting firm shall be decided upon by the Shareholders' Meeting. The remuneration of an accounting firm engaged by the Board of Directors shall be determined by the Board of Directors after being approved by the Audit Committee and shall be reported to the Shareholders' Meeting for approval.

Article 203. The engagement, dismissal or non-renewal of engagement of an accounting firm shall be submitted to the Board of Directors for consideration after being considered and approved by the majority of all members of the Audit Committee and shall be decided upon by the Shareholders' Meeting.

The Company shall disclose information on the length of service and audit fees of the accounting firm, audit project partner and signing certified public accountant in its annual report. The Company shall annually disclose an evaluation report on the performance of the accounting firm and the report of the Audit Committee on the performance of the supervisory duties by the accounting firm in accordance with the requirements, and if a change of the accounting firm is involved, it shall also disclose the status of the predecessor accounting firm and the audit opinion of the previous year, the reasons for the change of accounting firm, and the communication with the predecessor accounting firm. The Company shall report the relevant explanations in accordance with the requirements of the bodies performing the contributor's functions.

Where the Company changes the accounting firm, the selection and appointment shall be completed before the end of the fourth quarter of the year under audit.

Article 204. When the Company dismisses or does not renew the engagement of an accounting firm, it shall give notice to the accounting firm 10 days in advance. The accounting firm shall have the right to present its views before the Shareholders' Meeting. If the accounting firm believes that the Company's grounds for the dismissal or non-renewal of engagement of it are not justified, it shall appeal to the State Council authorities in charge of securities and Chinese Institute of Certified Public Accountants. In case the accounting firm tenders the resignation, it shall describe to the Shareholders' Meeting whether there is any improper matter.

CHAPTER 19 Merger and Division of the Company

Article 205. The Company may carry out mergers or divisions in accordance with the laws.

Upon the merger or division of the Company, the Company's Board of Directors shall take necessary measures to protect the lawful rights and interests of the shareholders who oppose the proposal for the merger or division of the Company.

Article 206. A merger involving the Company may take either the form of a merger by absorption or the form of a merger by new establishment.

If the Company is involved in a merger, the parties to the merger shall enter into a merger agreement. The parties to the merger shall prepare a balance sheet and a property list. Within 10 days from the date of adoption of the merger resolution, the Company shall notify its creditors and within 30 days it shall make an announcement in the newspapers or on National Enterprise Credit Information Publicity System. A creditor may, within 30 days from the date of receipt of the notice or, if he did not receive a notice, within 45 days from the date of the announcement, require the Company to pay its debt to him in full or to provide commensurate security.

When the Company is merged, the claims and debts of each party to the merger shall be succeeded to by the Company surviving the merger or the new company established subsequent to the merger.

Article 207. If the Company is divided, its property shall be divided accordingly.

When the Company is divided, a division agreement shall be signed by all parties involved in the division and it shall prepare a balance sheet and a property list. Within 10 days from the date of adoption of the resolution on the division, the Company shall notify its creditors and within 30 days it shall make an announcement in the newspapers or on National Enterprise Credit Information Publicity System.

The post-division companies shall be jointly and severally liable for the pre-division debts of the Company, unless provided otherwise in a written agreement on debt repayment reached between the Company and a creditor prior to the division.

Article 208. If a change occurs in the Company's registered particulars due to its merger or division, the change shall be registered with the Company's registrar in accordance with the laws. If the Company is dissolved, de-registration of the Company shall be carried out in accordance with the law. If a new company is established, registration of the establishment of such company shall be carried out in accordance with the laws.

CHAPTER 20 Dissolution and Liquidation of the Company

Article 209. The Company shall be dissolved for the following reasons:

- (1) the term of business provided for in these Articles of Association has expired or the occurrence of any other cause of dissolution provided for in these Articles of Association;
- (2) the Shareholders' Meeting resolves to dissolve the Company;
- (3) dissolution is necessary as a result of the merger or dissolution of the Company;
- (4) the Company has its business license revoked, is ordered to close down or is shut down in accordance with the law for breaching laws and administrative regulations;
- (5) serious difficulties arise in the operation and management of the Company and its continued existence would cause material loss to the interests of the shareholders and such difficulties cannot be resolved through other means, in which case shareholders holding at least 10 percent of voting rights may petition a People's Court to dissolve the Company.

If the Company has any cause for dissolution specified in the preceding paragraph, it shall make public the cause of dissolution through the National Enterprise Credit Information Publicity System within 10 days.

Article 210. If the Company falls under the circumstances specified in item (1) or (2) of the first paragraph of Article 209 of these Articles of Association, and has not distributed property to shareholders, it may continue to exist by amending these Articles of Association or by resolution of the Shareholders' Meeting. Amending these Articles of Association or obtaining a resolution of the Shareholders' Meeting based on the preceding paragraph requires the approval of more than two-thirds of the voting rights held by the shareholders present at the Shareholders' Meeting.

Where the Company is dissolved pursuant to Items (1), (2), (4) or (5) of the first paragraph of Article 209 of these Articles of Association, it shall be liquidated. The directors shall be the liquidation obligors of the Company and shall set up a liquidation committee for liquidation within 15 days after the dissolution circumstance arises. The members of the liquidation committee shall be determined by the Board of Directors or the Shareholders' Meeting. If the liquidation committee is not duly set up or fails to liquidate after its establishment, the stakeholders may request the people's court to designate related persons to form a liquidation committee to carry out liquidation.

Article 211. When making decisions to dissolve or apply for liquidation, the Company shall solicit opinions of its labor union, and shall solicit opinions and suggestions of the employees through the employee representatives' meeting or in other means.

Article 212. The liquidation committee shall notify creditors within a period of 10 days from the date of its establishment and make announcements of the liquidation in the newspapers or on National Enterprise Credit Information Publicity System within 60 days. The creditors shall declare their claims to the liquidation committee within 30 days from the date they receive the notice, or if they have not received such notice, within 45 days from the date the announcement is made.

When declaring the claims, a creditor shall specify the matters in respect of each claim, and provide supporting materials. Claims shall be registered by the liquidation committee.

During the declaration period, the liquidation committee may not pay any debts to creditors.

Article 213. The liquidation committee shall exercise the following functions and powers during liquidation:

- (1) to inventory the Company's property, and to prepare a balance sheet and property list;
- (2) to notify creditors by notice and public announcement;
- (3) to dispose of unfinished business of the Company relating to the liquidation;
- (4) to make full payment of taxes owed and of taxes incurred during the liquidation process;
- (5) to liquidate claims and debts;
- (6) to distribute the Company's property remaining after the debts are paid in full;
- (7) to represent the Company in civil actions.

Article 214. After the liquidation committee has inventoried the Company's property and prepared a balance sheet and property list, it shall formulate a liquidation plan and submit such plan to the Shareholders' Meeting or the competent authority for confirmation.

After payment of the liquidation expenses, the Company's property remaining shall pay in the following order: (i) the wages of the employees; (ii) social insurance premiums and statutory compensation; (iii) the taxes owed; (iv) bank loans, Company bonds and other Company debts.

The remaining assets after the disposal of the Company's property in accordance with the preceding provision, the shareholders shall distribute them according to the type and proportion of shares held by them:

- (1) in case of preferred shares, they shall be distributed to the shareholders of the preferred shares according to the par value of the preferred shares; in case the shares fail to repay for the preference shares, they shall be distributed according to the proportion of shares held by the shareholders of the preference shares;
- (2) be distributed by the Company to the shareholders in proportion to the shares they hold. During liquidation, the Company shall not engage in any business activities unrelated to the liquidation.

Article 215. If the Company is liquidated due to dissolution and the liquidation committee, having inventoried the Company's property and prepared a balance sheet and property list, discovers that the Company's property is insufficient to pay its debts in full, it shall apply to the Peoples Court for a bankruptcy liquidation.

After the People's Court accepts a bankruptcy liquidation, the liquidation committee shall turn over the liquidation matters to bankruptcy administrator appointed by the People's Court.

Article 216. Following completion of the liquidation of the Company, the liquidation committee shall prepare a liquidation report, submit to the Shareholders' Meeting or the People's Court for confirmation and submit the same to the company registrar, apply for cancellation of the Company's registration.
